Meet our graduating seniors

James Weiss

James Weiss is a guitarist, vocalist, songwriter, and music teacher from the Northern Virginia area. His playing and teaching experience span Jazz, Blues, Rock, Folk, and Heavy-Metal music. He graduated from Northern Virginia Community College with an Associate Degree in Music May 2018. He will graduate from George Mason University with a Bachelor of Music in Jazz Studies December 2021. At Mason he had the honor of taking guitar and arranging lessons with Dr. Shawn Purcell and voice lessons with Dr. Darden Purcell. James has studied improvisation with Victor Provost and Jim Carroll and performed in the Mason Jazz Combos, under the direction of Wade Beach, and the Jazz Workshop, under the direction of John Kocur. He has performed in the Center for the Arts at George Mason University, as well as Harris Theatre, Epicure Café, and Patrick Henry College. Upon graduating he plans to continue gigging and teaching in the Northern Virginia and DC area while also doing session work and composing.

Meet the Directors

Darden Purcell is a Washington D.C. based jazz vocalist, featured with symphony orchestras, big bands and small ensembles and Jazz educator. Ms. Purcell has shared the stage with jazz artists including Eric Alexander, Terell Stafford, Jim Pugh, Chip McNeill, Alan Baylock, Byron Stripling, Bobby Floyd, Jim Carroll, The Metropolitan Jazz Orchestra, US Navy Band Commodores, USAF Airmen of Note, US Army Blues and American Festival Pops Orchestra, performing nationally and internationally, including Blues Alley, Club Bonafide (NYC), Pops for Champagne, The Jazz Kitchen, Blue Wisp, The Bop Stop, JazzB (Sao Paulo, Brazil), Sandler Center, Meyerhoff Center, Wolf Trap and The Kennedy Center (back-up vocals for Mr. George Benson, Caroline Shaw, Ben Folds, Sara Bareilles). Dr. Purcell is the Director of Jazz Studies, Jazz Voice Instructor and Director of the Mason Jazz Vocal Ensemble at George Mason University.

Ms. Purcell is a former Washington DC Air Force Band vocalist, performing in Germany, Italy, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, Kyrgyzstan, Pakistan, Bahrain and the United Arab Emirates. She performed back-up vocals for Chaka Khan, BeBe Winans, Bryan White, Lari White, Janie Frickie, Freda Payne, Sherrie Payne, Gloria Loring, Melba Moore and Rita Coolidge as well as Darlene Love on "The Late Show with David Letterman."

Dr. Purcell is an active jazz vocal educator and clinician. Her groups have performed at the New York Voices Jazz Festival, Western Michigan's Gold Company Jazz Vocal Invitational, the 2012, 2017, 2018 Jazz Education Network (JEN) Conferences, Kansas City Jazz Summit (awarded "Outstanding Ensemble") and ACCENT Vocal Festival and shared the stage with The New York Voices, ACCENT and The Manhattan Transfer. Dr. Purcell has served as faculty for Illinois Summer Youth Music, Mason Summer Jazz Workshop and National Jazz Workshop. She has been a guest artist/clinician/presenter at the University of Illinois, Texas Tech University, Virginia Tech, Southern Nazarene University, Illinois Wesleyan, Tiffin University, Capital University, Virginia Music Educators Association, "Jazz Voices" Conference in Graz, Austria and Projeto GURI in Sao Paulo, Brazil. Her students have been awarded finalist spots in vocal competitions, "Outstanding soloist" and "Outstanding Musicianship" awards at collegiate festivals, as well as Downbeat Student Music Awards.

Dr. Purcell received her Bachelor of Arts in Vocal Jazz Performance at Virginia Tech, a Master of Music and a Doctor of Musical Arts in Jazz Performance at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Visit Darden at dardenpurcell.com.

Dana Van Slyke has served as choral director at Herndon High School since 1995. She conducts the seven choirs that make up the HHS program and serves as the music director for the Spring Musical and the Broadway Cabaret. She also has served as the Chancel Choir director at the First United Presbyterian Church of Dale City since 2011. Under her direction, the Herndon Choirs have received superior ratings annually, have performed at the White House six times and have performed at the VMEA state conference three times. Ms. Van Slyke received the Commendation of Excellence as a Fairfax County Teacher of the Year Nominee in 2004 and the Herndon Optimist Club Partnership in Education Award in 2006. In 2011, she was selected to receive the Wolftrap Performing Arts Teacher Scholarship Award. Ms. Van Slyke is a graduate of Ithaca College with a degree in music education and vocal performance. She also holds a master's degree in music education from Shenandoah Conservatory and her certification in Educational Leadership from Longwood University. Ms. Van Slyke currently serves as the President of the Virginia Choral Directors' Association.
