COVID-19 Retrospective - 85 Inspired Artworks Escape Local Studios

Artworks from 85 artists previously sequestered in studios since March 2020 have finally escaped into the light. The Lamorinda Arts Council invites you to view an entire gallery of inspiring artwork in the Art Gallery at the Orinda Library during the month of July. This is the first post-COVID-19 exhibit where the whole gallery is open to the public. Meet the artists at an outdoor reception in their honor on Sat., July 10 from 3:30 – 5:30 p.m. on the patio adjacent to the Gallery. In a special tribute to the reemergence of local artists, The Orinda News features a slideshow of 20 artworks curated from artworks on display at the gallery in their online edition.
