

Matthew Felix Sun

Transience - Paintings of Disquiet and Uncertainty

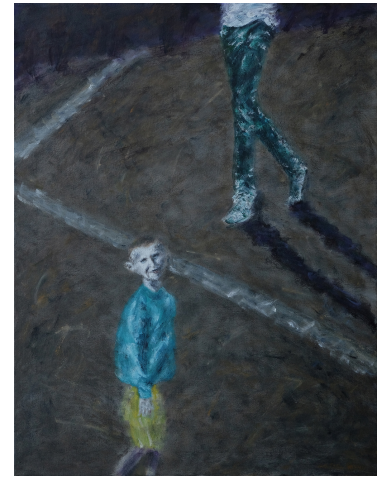

Artist Reception: April 3rd from 2:30-4:30 pm

April 2022 Featured Artist

The Lamorinda Arts Council's featured artist in the Art Gallery at Wilder for April is painter Matthew Felix Sun. Meet him at a reception in his honor on Sunday April 3 from 2:30 – 4:30 p.m. View his virtual exhibit at www.lamorindaarts.org/online-galleries and a video preview of his show at youtu.be/M1iNAyeEKZ0. For directions to the opening see www.lamorindaarts.org/current-exhibits-wilder/.

According to Sun, he has loved drawing since childhood. He says that he found reproducing images that interested him on paper or canvas endlessly fascinating. The ten pieces he is presenting are oil paintings he worked on over the last two years. "I strive to discover and capture what is hidden, emphasizing the unspoken over verisimilitude. This tendency is from my years growing up in China where much is hinted at, but rarely spoken aloud. These experiences sharpened my awareness of the invisible burdens born by people everywhere," said Sun.

"Transience – Paintings of Disquiet and Uncertainty" is an exhibit about Sun's ideas and experiences while living through the pandemic. This surely is a topic many people can relate to. His work is in collections in the U.S., Canada, U.K. and China and has been selected for exhibitions in San Francisco, New York and Seattle.
