Nature in Abstraction

The Lamorinda Arts Council (Council) presents the abstract nature paintings of featured artist David Lew at their virtual Art Gallery at Wilder during the month of August. Access Lew's artwork online at www.lamorindaarts.org/online-galleries/.

Many of Lew's works combine abstract and naturalistic imagery. Rather than contrasting abstract versus naturalism, he works to allow these different genres to work together in a lyrical way. He intentionally reveals the layers of pigment during the process to create the effect of a more “fluid” movement throughout the canvas. This layering invites viewers to participate in the process and to enjoy the freedom the work evokes.
