

Annie Advertisements

Thank you for your interest in supporting The Saint Genesius Players through your purchase of an advertisement at our performance. In the effort of saving paper and presenting the most high-quality advertisements possible, we will not be printing ads in our program, but rather, projecting them before the show, during intermission, and after the show. In addition, each advertiser will be listed in the program according to level of support. If you wish to support the musical at the highest level, your ad will also be printed on heavy-duty stock, matted, and placed in our Aisle of Support during the entire run of Annie. The cost of each particular ad will be based on the level of support chosen.
