GATHERING

Note: Congregational responses in bold type.

WELCOME TO THIS WORSHIP CELEBRATION of the living Christ's presence in our midst. Christ comes to us with new life and strength for Christian living in daily life through the hearing of the Word, preaching, prayer, song, and community.

PRELUDE

CONFESSİON AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity,  one God, who creates, redeems, and sustains us and all of creation.

Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Faithful God,

have mercy on us.

We confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.

We turn from your loving embrace and go our own ways.

We pass judgment on one another before examining ourselves.

We place our own needs before those of our neighbors.

We keep your gift of salvation to ourselves.

Make us humble, cast away our transgressions,
and turn us again to life in you
through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

God hears the cries of all who call out in need,
and through his death and resurrection,
Christ has made us his own.

Hear the truth that God proclaims:
Your sins are forgiven in the name of † Jesus Christ.
Led by the Holy Spirit, live in freedom and newness
to do God's work in the world.

Amen.

WORD

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 45:1-7

OT 634

The prophet announces that Cyrus the Persian emperor is the one the LORD has anointed to end Israel's exile. The LORD makes this choice so that the whole world will recognize this LORD as the only God. Persia had a god of light and a god of darkness; the LORD claims sovereignty over both light and darkness.

¹Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him

 and strip kings of their robes,
 to open doors before him—
 and the gates shall not be closed:

²I will go before you
 and level the mountains,
I will break in pieces the doors of bronze
 and cut through the bars of iron,

³I will give you the treasures of darkness
 and riches hidden in secret places,
so that you may know that it is I, the LORD,
 the God of Israel, who call you by your name.

⁴For the sake of my servant Jacob,
 and Israel my chosen,

I call you by your name,
I surname you, though you do not know me.

⁵I am the LORD, and there is no other;
besides me there is no god.
I arm you, though you do not know me,
⁶so that they may know, from the rising of the sun
and from the west, that there is no one besides me;
I am the LORD, and there is no other.

⁷I form light and create darkness,
I make weal and create woe;
I the LORD do all these things.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM: PSALM 96: 1-9

Ascribe to the LORD honor and power. (Ps. 96:7)

¹Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all the earth.

²Sing to the LORD, bless the name of the LORD;
proclaim God's salvation from day to day.

³Declare God's glory among the nations
and God's wonders among all peoples.

⁴For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised,
more to be feared than all gods.

⁵As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols;
but you, O LORD, have made the heavens.

⁶Majesty and magnificence are in your presence;
power and splendor are in your sanctuary.

⁷Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples,
ascribe to the LORD honor and power.

⁸Ascribe to the LORD the honor due the holy name;
bring offerings and enter the courts of the LORD.

⁹Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness;
tremble before the LORD, all the earth.

SECOND READING: 1 THESSALONIANS 1:1-10

NT 179

Most likely this letter is the first written by Paul. Paul gives pastoral encouragement and reassurances to new Christians living in an antagonistic environment. Their commitment of faith, love, and hope makes them a model for other new Christian communities.

¹Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
Grace to you and peace.

²We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly ³remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, ⁵because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. ⁶And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, ⁷so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. ⁸For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. ⁹For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, ¹⁰and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go?
You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia.

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 22: 15-22

NT 21

After Jesus begins teaching in the temple, religious leaders try to trap him with questions. First they ask if God's people should pay taxes to an earthly tyrant like Caesar.

The Holy Gospel according Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord.

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went and plotted to entrap [Jesus] in what he said. ¹⁶So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. ¹⁷Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?” ¹⁸But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? ¹⁹Show me the coin used for the tax.” And they brought him a denarius. ²⁰Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” ²¹They answered, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” ²²When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

ASSISTING A VISITING FAMILY

Lori and Ted Dorsz are visiting Savannah from their home in Newtown Square, Pennsylvania, and are attending Messiah while they are here. Their son John (Teddy/Ted) Dorsz II is a Savannah police officer. On September 10, 2020, he was diagnosed with APL Leukemia (Acute Promyelocytic Leukemia), which has a 90% remission rate and an approx. 80% cure rate with treatments.

Teddy grew up at St. Luke Lutheran Church in Devon, Pennsylvania his entire life before coming to Georgia. Messiah member Andrea Felkins has known both Teddy and his sister since they were babies. They are also family friends of Messiah charter member Ginny Romeiser.

He and his fiancée, Tori Klug, are both police officers with the Savannah Police Department. After graduating from the Police Academy, he met his fiancée, who lost her husband two years ago. He has since fallen in love with her four children and could not imagine them not having a father. He has taken them on to become a family. Since his relationship with Tori began, they have produced a wonderful baby boy named Caleb who is now 3 months old. The family of seven reside in a home about 8 miles from the church at 5607 La Roche Ave., Savannah GA 31406.

The Dorsz are asking for Messiah's assistance to join their "Meal Train," which helps supply the family with meals about 3 times a week. The web site is easy to navigate and to choose a date that is convenient for those who wish to help. Lori is more than happy to also take a phone call (610) 999-9900 and add you to the list or transport the meal. There is a cooler at their gate, which is located down a sandy road (Saussey Avenue) off LaRoche, which is the first house on the left. This is one of the easiest families to prepare for as the kids are not picky eaters. You can see their Meal Train page at <https://www.mealtrain.com/trains/7y56w2>

FLOWERS

If you donate flowers for worship, you are welcome to take them home with you to enjoy through the week.

IT'S STEWARDSHIP TIME

Please give prayerful consideration to the exercise of your financial stewardship plan, complete the Pledge Card, and return it in the accompanying envelope by Sunday, October 27. The Pledges will be dedicated on Sunday, November 13, during worship.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY SUSPENDED

The group that meets on Mondays at 9:30 am has decided to temporarily suspend their bible study sessions. Watch The Messiah Minute and the Sunday bulletin for news about when they will begin meetings again.

ARE YOU BORED? WANT SOMETHING NEW TO DO? HAVE TOO MANY PLASTIC BAGS?

If you answered YES, to any of the above, please come join us under the bell tower each WEDNESDAY at 10 am in Fellowship Hall. PLEASE BRING all your old plastic bags (grocery, Walmart, Dollar General, whatever you have). We will be making PLARN—which was recently featured in the TWATL. These are "plastic mats" that are donated to the homeless shelter for distribution to those on the streets. They are EASY TO MAKE. There are several steps, that we will break into groups to learn. No previous skills needed. You will find where you fit in and will be an important part of our project!!

We will social distance, wear a mask (if you choose), bring a chair to work in, scissors, hydration, and all those plastic bags!! If you cannot come but wish to donate bags, you may do so at the church office entrance.

Thank you!! See you on WEDNESDAY!!
