

E Frontage Road N closure ahead next week!

Crews will close E Frontage Road N next week as they continue work on the South Jerome Interchange. This closure will allow crews to realign E Frontage Road N to the new intersection at Lincoln Avenue.

Here's what you can expect:

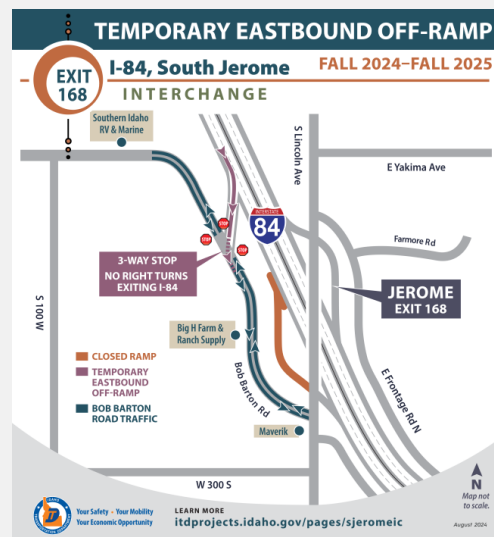

- Flagging will occur on E Frontage Road N on Monday, September 23.
- E Frontage Road N will close on Tuesday, September 24.
- The closure is expected to continue until late fall.
- Motorists will be able to access Farmore Road from Lincoln Avenue.
- Motorists whose destination is past Farmore Road will detour using Lincoln Avenue, Yakima Avenue and S 100 E. Click here to view a detour map.

Temporary eastbound off-ramp ahead on Bob Barton Road

ITD will shift traffic from the eastbound off-ramp at the South Jerome Interchange onto Bob Barton Road next week. This traffic pattern will allow crews to construct the new eastbound off-ramp.

Here's what you need to know:

- Eastbound traffic will use Bob Barton Road to exit I-84 at the South Jerome Interchange.
- Traffic will shift next week as early as Wednesday, September 25.
- Traffic exiting I-84 and traveling on Bob Barton Road will stop at a 3-way stop. Click here to view a map of the new traffic pattern.
- Traffic is expected to remain in this configuration through late fall 2025.
