

Celtic Spirituality II

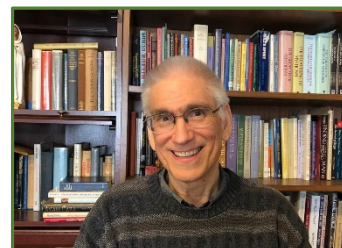

PWNC Annual Spirituality Retreat
March 12-13, 2021

VIRTUALLY via ZOOM

Experience the prayer, poetry, folklore, and spirituality of the Celtic Christians of old — and how their lyrical, down-to-earth, and hope-filled wisdom still speaks to us today. If you attended our retreat in 2019, you can expect to build on what you learned then. More time will be devoted to putting these spiritual disciplines into practice. The 2019 event is in no way a pre-requisite for this year's retreat. First time attendees are more than welcome! For all who attend, our time together will explore ways for us to celebrate Celtic wisdom and weave it into our lives here in the 21st century. We will pray together, enjoy the poetry and stories of the Celtic saints, and seek the still, small voice of God.

About Our Leader:

We're pleased to welcome back Carl McColman as our retreat leader. Carl comes to us from Clarkston, Georgia (near Atlanta), where he conducts full-time lay ministry as a Christian blogger, speaker, and educator. He is an adjunct instructor with the Columbia Theological Seminary (CTS) Center for Lifelong Learning and has led a number of CTS Spirituality programs at the seminary as well as at Montreat. Carl is a Lay Associate of the Trappist monastery in Georgia and is the author of several books, including An Invitation to Celtic Wisdom, Answering the Contemplative Call, and Befriending Silence.
