

Judge Angela D. Duncan was born in Virginia and grew up in Prince Georges County Maryland, just outside of Washington, D.C.

Judge Duncan graduated from high school and started college at the age of 16. She then graduated from North Georgia College in 1991 and John Marshall Law School in 1996. Judge Duncan also served as a mechanic in the U. S. Army Reserve from 1987-1995.

After graduating from law school, Judge Duncan began private practice as a partner with her father, Bruce D. Duncan. She focused on criminal defense, domestic litigation, and personal injury.

Judge Duncan was appointed to the Municipal Court in Chamblee in June of 1999 and currently serves as the Chief Judge in Chamblee. Judge Duncan has also served in the Municipal Courts of Doraville, Norcross, Suwanee, and Snellville.

In 2004, Judge Duncan was appointed to the Gwinnett County Magistrate Court bench. In 2016, she was appointed as a full time Magistrate Court Judge.

Judge Duncan is a graduate of Leadership Gwinnett, Class of 2017, Best Class Ever!

Her greatest accomplishment in life is being the wife of Michele Tainter and mother to their two children, Brody & Alex. Her interests outside of court are her dogs, running, soccer, and football.

Judge Duncan has a true passion for the bench and serving the community.