

Join us for Art on the Spectrum

Children with sensory sensitivities or on the autism spectrum and their families are invited to an open morning of artistic exploration and play.

Saturday, April 6, 9 – 11 AM

FREE for children Ages 3 – 12 and caregivers (advance registration required)

Starting before public hours, children can participate in art activities, gallery experiences, and music therapy, all at their own pace. Structured support, social narratives, and noise-cancelling headphones will be available, as well as a quiet space with sensory toys. Space is limited, and advance registration is required. This program is made possible by support from the National Endowment for the Arts.

Presented in collaboration with the Crocker Art Access Committee, the UC Davis MIND Institute, Warm Line Family Resource Center, and the Sacramento Autism Spectrum and Special Needs Alliance.

Register at crockerart.org, by visiting the Museum admission desk, or by calling (916) 808-1182.
