

String Orchestra Lessons with

Cara Schlecker Ketter
VIOLINIST

Ms. Ketter has an immense passion for helping young musicians find joy and confidence in music making and tailors her approach to a student's specific goals and interests. She is a registered Suzuki instructor, having completed her pedagogical training at the University of Michigan. Ms. Ketter teaches both the Suzuki and traditional method and is very excited to join Immanuel Lutheran School!

Through private lessons, students can:

- Improve upon their current skill level
- Expand their musicianship and advance techniques
- Gain confidence in performance of their instrument

(Due to Covid-19, in-person private lessons will be offered. All group ensembles will temporarily be on hold. Virtual performance opportunities will be available to students.)

Cara Schlecker Ketter is an avid teacher and performer. She received her Master's and Specialist's Degree in Violin Performance from The University of Michigan and her Undergraduate Degree from the Robert McDuffie Center for Strings at Mercer University. Ms. Ketter has served as Concertmaster of Star Gate Orchestra and an Associate Member of The Civic Orchestra of Chicago.

She made her Lincoln Center Debut in 2012, and has performed with artists such as: Yo-Yo Ma, Rod Stewart, Chuck Leavell, R.E.M.'s Mike Mills. the "TEN Tenors on Broadway," Jo Dee Messina, and Martin Short, among others. She has been featured on Chicago's classical radio station WFMT, as well as PBS. In January 2018, her video recording of Igor Frolov's Concert Fantasia- On Themes from Gershwin's Opera Porgy and Bess, op.19, was released from The University of Michigan's Duderstadt Center and Gershwin Initiative.

Classes will be offered during the day on select days at Immanuel Lutheran School- please contact Cara Ketter to reserve your child's time.

For more information:

Email: CSKMusicLLC@gmail.com

Phone: 708-574-6117