7th Grade Practice Exam

The High School Placement Test (HSPT) is a required component of the admissions process for Denver Catholic high schools. The official exam takes place the first Saturday of December. Regis Jesuit is offering a unique opportunity for current 7th grade students to take a full practice version of the exam. Students will learn how they compare to other 7th grade students across the nation, gain important information on academic strengths and weaknesses, and proceed into 8th grade with a strong sense of focus and readiness.
