All Saints' Sunday

Welcome to All Saints'. We're glad you're here! We are a Christ-centered faith community in the Episcopal (Anglican) tradition where all are welcome. We come from many backgrounds and perspectives, but we share two common commitments: to grow in our love of God and our neighbors; and to see a world transformed by Jesus. No matter who you are or where you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here.

Please visit our website at www.allsaintsglenrock.org and sign up for News & Notes -- our weekly listing of services, ministries, and events. And join us again whenever you are able, or whenever the Spirit calls you closer to God. We'll always be happy to welcome you back, no matter the reason or the season.

Our Mission: At All Saints' Episcopal Church of Glen Rock, we strive to be a community that proclaims by word and example the good news of God in Christ: by seeking and serving Christ in all persons, loving our neighbors as ourselves, striving for justice and peace among all people, and respecting the dignity of every human being.

Prelude

Commemoration of the Faithful Departed in the Garth

O God, whose blessed Son was laid in a garden tomb: continue to hallow this garden of repose, and grant that all those who rest here may one day dwell with Christ in paradise, and come into your heavenly Kingdom through your Son Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Presider: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Let us pray.

O God, Sovereign of the saints, we praise and glorify your holy Name for all your servants who have finished their earthly course in your faith and fear: for the blessed Virgin Mary; for the holy patriarchs and matriarchs, the prophets, apostles, and martyrs; and for all your righteous servants – those known to us and those whose faith is known to you alone -- and we pray that, encouraged by their examples, aided by their prayers, and strengthened by their fellowship, we also may be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; through the merits of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

+A Prayer for All Saints' Church

Blessèd be your name, O Lord, that it did please thee to put into the hearts of thy servants in years gone by to found this parish, and to build and adorn this house for thy honor and glory, for the ministry of thy Word and sacraments, and for the furtherance of works of charity. Send down thy heavenly blessing upon this church of All Saints' on this All Saints' Sunday and every day, that all we who have come to call this their spiritual home may live in peace and unity with one another. May thine own loving kindness to us spread forth from this church to those who seek after thy mercy and justice, so that they too may come to abide in the peace and love that dwells herein. In your blessèd name, we pray. Amen.

All are seated.

The Lessons

The First Reading

A reading from the book of Revelation, chapter seven, beginning at the ninth verse:

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Revelation 7:9-17

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of John, chapter three, beginning at the first verse:

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

1 John 3:1-3

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

+The Holy Gospel

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessèd are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessèd are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

"Blessèd are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

"Blessèd are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

"Blessèd are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

"Blessèd are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

"Blessèd are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

"Blessèd are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessèd are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Matthew 5:1-12

Reader: The Gospel of our Savior

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Offertory Anthem

"The Eternal Gifts of Christ the King"

Melody: Giovanni Guidetti (1532-1592)

Arr. by Henry G. Ley (1887-1962)

The eternal gifts of Christ the King,
The Apostles' glorious deeds, we sing;
And while due hymns of praise we pay,
Our thankful hearts cast grief away.

'Twas thus the yearning faith of saints,
The unconquered hope that never faints,
The love of Christ that knows not shame,
The prince of this world overcame.

In these the Father's glory shone;
In these the will of God the Son;
In these exults the Holy Ghost;
Through these rejoice the heavenly host.

Redeemer, hear us of Thy love,
That, with this glorious band above,
Hereafter, of Thine endless grace,
Thy servants also may have place. Amen.

Presider: The Lord is here.

People: God's Spirit is with us.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to offer thanks and praise.

It is right indeed that we should praise you, God of love, our source and our fulfilment, for you create all things, and in you we live and move and have our being. Your wonder is manifest in land and sea and sky.

When the times had at last grown full and the earth had ripened in abundance, you made us in your image for yourself. And even though we turn from you, again and again you call us to yourself, and in every age, promise liberation. As a mother tenderly gathers her children, you embraced a people as your own to rear them in the way of your compassionate love.

From your own being you sent Jesus among us, incarnate of the Holy Spirit and born of Mary our sister. Jesus revealed your care for all you have made, and showed us the way of reconciliation. Looking forward to the joy of new life Jesus suffered the pangs of the cross and in rising again became the first-born of your renewed family.

You sent your Holy Spirit and gave birth to your church. Your Spirit stays to nurture and to guide us. Now as we gather around your table with all creation, we praise your unending love as we sing,

+Sanctus

The Hymnal 1982, S-128

“Holy, holy, holy Lord”

William Mathias (1934-1992)

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

To you indeed be glory, almighty God, because on the night before he died, your Son, Jesus Christ, took bread; when he had given you thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup; when he had given you thanks, he gave it to them and said: This cup is the new covenant in my blood poured out for you; do this as often as you drink it to remember me.

And so in this great sacrament we celebrate and proclaim the mystery of our faith:

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come in glory.

Therefore, loving God, recalling now Christ's death and resurrection, we ask you to accept this our sacrifice of praise. Send your Holy Spirit upon us and our celebration, that we may be fed with the body and blood of your Son and be filled with your life and goodness. Strengthen us to do your work, and to be your loving presence in the world. Unite us in Christ and give us your peace. Through your Holy Spirit, may we who receive these gifts live lives of justice, love, and prayer, and be a voice for those who are not heard.

In union with your whole church we worship you, O God, in songs of everlasting praise.
Blessing, honor and glory be yours, here and everywhere, now and forever. AMEN.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

A Prayer for Communion with Christ

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated. I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving.... Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.
