

All Saints' Episcopal Church

September 3, 2023, 10 am

The Fourteenth Sunday After Pentecost

Welcome to All Saints'. We're glad you're here! We are a Christ-centered faith community in the Episcopal (Anglican) tradition where all are welcome. We come from many backgrounds and perspectives, but we share two common commitments: to grow in our love of God and our neighbors; and to see a world transformed by Jesus. No matter who you are or where you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here.

Please visit our website at www.allsaintsglenrock.org and sign up for News & Notes -- our weekly listing of services, ministries, and events. And join us again whenever you are able, or whenever the Spirit calls you closer to God. We'll always be happy to welcome you back, no matter the reason or the season.

Our Mission: At All Saints' Episcopal Church of Glen Rock, we strive to be a community that proclaims by word and example the good news of God in Christ: by seeking and serving Christ in all persons, loving our neighbors as ourselves, striving for justice and peace among all people, and respecting the dignity of every human being.

Morning Prayer: Rite Two

Today's liturgy is from The Book of Common Prayer 1979 (Expansive Language) and Enriching Our Worship.
Please stand as you are able where indicated with a “+.”

Prelude

+Entrance Hymn 450

All hail the power of Jesus' Name

Coronation

The musical score consists of four staves of music. The top two staves are in treble clef, and the bottom two are in bass clef. The music is in common time. The lyrics are as follows:

+The Opening Sentence

Leader: God is Spirit, and those who worship must worship in spirit and in truth.

John 4:24

+Confession of Sin

Leader: Let us confess our sins to God.

A moment of silence may be kept.

Leader and People:

God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.

We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.

We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.

Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

Leader: Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter

+Opening Versicle

Leader: O God, let our mouth proclaim your praise.

People: And your glory all the day long.

Leader and People:

Praise to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

+Antiphon

Leader: Christ has triumphed over death; O come let us worship.

Please be seated.

Invitatory Psalm 95:1-7 (Venite)

Come, let us sing to the Lord

Hymnal S-35

Jack Noble White (b. 1938)

1. Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.

2. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

3. For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4. In his hand are the caverns of the earth, and the heights of the hills are his also.

5. The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands have mold ed the dry land.

6. Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

7. For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Oh, that to day you would hearken to his voice!

Psalm 105:1-6, 23-26, 45c

Recited responsively by the half verse.

1. Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name; *
make known his deeds among the peoples.
2. Sing to him, sing praises to him, * and speak of all his marvelous works.
3. Glory in his holy Name; *
let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.
4. Search for the Lord and his strength; *
continually seek his face.
5. Remember the marvels he has done, *
his wonders and the judgments of his mouth,
6. O offspring of Abraham his servant, *
O children of Jacob his chosen.
23. Israel came into Egypt, *
and Jacob became a sojourner in the land of Ham.
24. The Lord made his people exceedingly fruitful; *
he made them stronger than their enemies;
25. Whose heart he turned, so that they hated his people, * and dealt unjustly with his servants.
26. He sent Moses his servant, *
and Aaron whom he had chosen.
45. Hallelujah!

The Lessons

The First Reading

A Reading from the Book of Exodus, chapter three, beginning at the first verse:

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, “I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up.” When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” Then he said, “Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.” He said further, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, “I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.”

But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?” He said, “I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.” But Moses said to God, “If I come to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what shall I say to them?” God said to Moses, “I am who I am.” He said further, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘I am has sent me to you.’” God also said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you’: This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations.

Exodus 3:1-15

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Canticle 9: The First Song of Isaiah

WLP 881

Surely it is God who saves me

Carl Haywood (b. 1949)

The Congregation is invited to sing the Refrain after it is sung first by the Cantor, and wherever indicated (Refrain). Verses will be sung by the Cantor.

Refrain

I will trust in the Lord, I will trust in the Lord, who's my sure de - fense and my friend.

Surely, it is God who saves me; *

I will trust in him and not be afraid

For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense, * and he will be my Savior. Refrain

Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing * from the springs of salvation.

And on that day you shall say, *
Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name; Refrain

Make his deeds known among the peoples; *
see that they remember that his Name is exalted.

Sing the praises of the Lord, for he has done great things, * and this is known in all the world. Refrain

Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy, * for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Refrain

The Second Reading

A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans, chapter 12, beginning at the ninth verse:

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 12:9-21

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Canticle 19: The Song of the Redeemed

How wondrous and great thy works

Hymn 533

Lyons

1 How won - drous and great thy works, God of praise!
 2 To na - tions of earth thy light shall be shown;
 How just, King of saints, and true come are thy ways!
 their wor - ship and vows shall to thy throne:
 O who shall not fear thee, and hon - or thy Name?
 thy truth and thy judg - ments shall spread all a - broad,
 Thou on - ly art ho - ly, thou on - ly su - preme.
 till earth's ev - ery peo - ple con - fess thee their God.

Words: Henry Ustick Onderdonk (1759-1858), alt.; para. The Song of the Redeemed. Music: Lyons, att. Johann Michael Haydn (1737-1806).

+The Holy Gospel

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.” But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

Then Jesus told his disciples, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?

“For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”

Matthew 16:21-28

Reader: The Gospel of our Savior

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

Sue Morgan, MDiv

+The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory Anthem

“Day by Day”

K. Lee Scott (b. 1950)

Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray:
 To see thee more clearly,
 Love thee more dearly,
Follow thee more nearly, day by day.

Thanks be to thee, Lord Jesus,
For all the benefits which thou hast won for us;
For all the pains and insults which thou hast borne for us,
 O merciful Redeemer, Friend and Brother.

Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray:
 To see thee more clearly,
 Love thee more dearly,
Follow thee more nearly, day by day, day by day. Amen.
 Day by day.

— Richard of Chichester (1197-1253)

The Prayers

All stand.

Leader: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray.

Leader and People:

Our Father in heaven,
 hallowed be your Name,
 your kingdom come,
 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
 as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
 and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The people remain standing.

+Suffrages

The Congregation is invited to recite the Response after the Versicle is recited by the Leader.

V. Help us, O God our Savior;
R. Deliver us and forgive us our sins.
V. Look upon your congregation;
R. Give to your people the blessing of peace.
V. Declare your glory among the nations;
R. And your wonders among all peoples.
V. Do not let the oppressed be shamed and turned away;
R. Never forget the lives of your poor.
V. Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you;
R. And your favor to those who are true of heart.
V. Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning;
R. So shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.

+The Collect of the Day

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

+The Collect for Sundays

O God, you make us glad with the weekly remembrance of the glorious resurrection of your Son our Lord: Give us this day such a blessing through our worship of you, that the week to come may be spent in your favor; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

+Prayer for the Mission

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of your faithful people is governed and sanctified: Receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before you for all members of your holy Church, that in their vocation and ministry they may truly and devoutly serve you; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

+Prayers for the People

adapted from the Standing Committee on Liturgy and Music's Prayers for Racial Reconciliation and Justice

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

God of love, we pray for your church: For Michael, our presiding bishop; Carlye, our bishop; and Mark, our rector. We pray for the renewal of our Preschool ministry and for the ministries of all the churches of the Diocese of Newark. God of love,

People: Hear our prayers for the church.

God of freedom, we pray for our nation, and all the nations of the world: For peace and unity across barriers of language, color, and creed; for our leaders, that they would serve the common good. Unite the human family in bonds of love. God of freedom,

Hear our prayers for the world.

God of justice, we pray for the earth, your creation entrusted to our care: Stir up in us a thirst for justice that protects the earth and all its resources, that we may leave to our children's children the legacy of beauty and abundance that you have given us.

God of justice,

Hear our prayers for the earth.

God of peace, we pray for this community: For our schools and markets; for our neighborhoods and workplaces. Give us courage to strive for justice and peace among all people, beginning here at home.

God of peace,

Hear our prayers for this community.

God of joy, we give you thanks for the occasions of joy and celebration in our lives. We glorify your name for the wonder of creation, the joys of our common life, and the gift of our salvation.

God of joy,

Hear our prayers of thanksgiving.

God of mercy, we pray for all in any kind of need or trouble: For the sick and suffering especially Robert, Barb, Floyd, Sharon, Jo, Jim, Dot, Ann, Edward, Gary, Andrew, Harlan, Alanna, Larry, Catie, Marilyn, Uncle Ricky, Joan, George, Hal, Isaiah, Michael, Helen, Dodie, Tammy, Emma, Jane, Nancy, Sarah, Diana, Deb, Carrie, Barbara, Katie, Pat, Jill, Val, Norman, Vernon, Carolyn, Harold, Rasdy, Chuck, Karen, Charlotte, Henry, Cheryl, Hazel, Sonia, Ruth Anne, Jim, Katherine, Jill, Debbie, Fred, Gert and for refugees and prisoners; for the lonely and despairing; for those facing violence; for all who are held down by prejudice or injustice. God of mercy,

Hear our prayers for all who are in need.

God of grace, we pray for those who have died especially Thomas Aquinas Power (and...) and for the faithful in every generation. Help us heed your call to proclaim your Good News, and bring us at last into the glorious company of the saints in light.

God of grace,

Hear our prayers for those who have died.

The officiant adds a concluding collect.

+The General Thanksgiving

Leader and People

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you humble thanks for all your goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all whom you have made.

We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

And, we pray, give us such an awareness of your mercies, that with truly thankful hearts we may show forth your praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to your service,
and by walking before you
in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit,
be honor and glory throughout all ages. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Announcements

Concluding Sentence

Leader: Glory to God whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine: Glory to God from generation to generation in the Church, and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen. Ephesians 3:20,21

Support the Hawai'i Fire Response through Episcopal Relief & Development:

The blaze that swept through West Maui is the deadliest US wildfire in over a century. High winds from Hurricane Dora and drought conditions combined to accelerate the growth of brush fires that devastated the Lahaina community in Hawai'i. Episcopal Relief & Development is in contact with the Episcopal Diocese of Hawai'i in the wake of wildfires that have killed many people and displaced hundreds of families on Maui. They are calling on churches to help support the response. Use the QR code above or go to episcopalrelief.org to make a donation today.

All Saints' Preschool Feasibility Study: By now, each household should have received the feasibility study in their mail. We are asking everyone to take the time to review it and fill out the survey (also available online at bit.ly/allsaintssurvey2023). Richie Musser, our partner from Kirby-Smith would love to speak with you. Schedule a time online bit.ly/allsaintsinterview2023.
