

All Saints' Episcopal Church

May 14, 2023, 10 am

The Sixth Sunday of Easter

Welcome to All Saints'. We're glad you're here! We are a Christ-centered faith community in the Episcopal (Anglican) tradition where all are welcome. We come from many backgrounds and perspectives, but we share two common commitments: to grow in our love of God and our neighbors; and to see a world transformed by Jesus. No matter who you are or where you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here.

Please visit our website at www.allsaintsglenrock.org and sign up for News & Notes -- our weekly listing of services, ministries, and events. And join us again whenever you are able, or whenever the Spirit calls you closer to God. We'll always be happy to welcome you back, no matter the reason or the season.

Our Mission: At All Saints' Episcopal Church of Glen Rock, we strive to be a community that proclaims by word and example the good news of God in Christ: by seeking and serving Christ in all persons, loving our neighbors as ourselves, striving for justice and peace among all people, and respecting the dignity of every human being.

for grace of sal - va - tion, O praise ye the Lord!

+The Opening Acclamation

Presider: Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People: Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

+The Collect of the Day

Presider: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

All are seated.

The Lessons

The First Reading

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles, chapter 17, beginning at the 22nd verse:

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, "Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, 'To an unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For ‘In him we live and move and have our being’; as even some of your own poets have said, ‘For we too are his offspring.’

Since we are God’s offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead.”

Acts 17:22-31

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 66:7-18

The Congregation is invited to sing the Refrain after it is sung first by the Choir, and wherever indicated (R). Verses will be sung by the Choir.

7. Bless our God, you peoples; *
make the voice of his praise to be heard;
8. Who holds our souls in life, * and will not allow our feet to slip. (R)
9. For you, O God, have proved us; *
you have tried us just as silver is tried.
10. You brought us into the snare; *
you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.
11. You let enemies ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water; *
but you brought us out into a place of refreshment. (R)

continued...

12. I will enter your house with burnt-offerings and will pay you my vows, * which I promised with my lips and spoke with my mouth when I was in trouble.
13. I will offer you sacrifices of fat beasts with the smoke of rams; *
I will give you oxen and goats. (R)
14. Come and listen, all you who fear God, * and I will tell you what he has done for me.
15. I called out to him with my mouth, * and his praise was on my tongue. (R)
16. If I had found evil in my heart, * the Lord would not have heard me;
17. But in truth God has heard me; *
he has attended to the voice of my prayer.
18. Blessed be God, who has not rejected my prayer, * nor withheld his love from me. (R)

The Second Reading

A Reading from the first Letter of Peter, chapter three, beginning at the 13th verse:

Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God's will, than to suffer for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you – not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

1 Peter 3:13-22

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

+The Holy Gospel

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

“I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them.”

John 14:15-21

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

An Update from the All Saints' Preschool Project Committee

+The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

+Prayers for the People

adapted from the Prayer Book of the Anglican Church of Southern Africa

Leader: Almighty one ... we are your children; your Spirit lives in us and we are in your Spirit: hear us, for it is your Spirit who speaks through us as we pray

People: God hear us

Leader: You created the heavens and the earth: bless the produce of our land and the works of our hands

People: God hear us

Leader: You created us in your own image: teach us to honor you in all your children

People: God hear us

Leader: Lord Jesus... you sent your apostles to make disciples of all nations: bless Michael, our presiding bishop, Carlye, our bishop, Mark, our rector, and all your children whose faithful service to others is their witness to you

People: Christ hear us

Leader: You taught us through Paul, your apostle, to pray for kings and rulers: bless and guide Joe our president, Phil our governor, Kristine our mayor, and all who are in authority

People: Christ hear us

Leader: You are our shield and our stay. Protect prisoners and captives, victims of war and violent conflict, refugees, and those who persevere against racism and oppression.

People: Christ hear us

Leader: You cured by your healing touch and word: heal the sick, and those who suffer from any pain or trouble, especially Emma, Jane, Nancy, Chris, Diana, Sarah, Mattye, Deb, Carrie, Barbara, Katie, Pat, Joanne, Anne, Shannon, Jill, Val, Norman, Mary Beth, Vernon, Carolyn, Harold, Rasdy, Chuck, Karen, Karie, Charlotte, Catherine, Henry, Elizabeth, Kate, Cheryl, Henry, Ed, Nick, Nate, Sonia, Thomas, Ruth Anne, Jim, Katherine, Jill, Debbie, Mary, Fred, Gert and bless those who minister to them

People: Christ hear us

Leader: You open, and none can shut: open the gates of your kingdom to those who have died, and grant peace to all who grieve

People: Christ hear us

Presider: Lord Jesus Christ, at your Nativity, you knew the love of a human mother -- a mother whom you loved, even from the cross. We give you thanks for our mothers, stepmothers, grandmothers, and all the women who care for us, teach us, nurture us and lead us. Bless all women who take upon themselves the vocation of motherhood. And grant that all those who prosper by their loving kindness may repay them in respect, honor, gratitude and affection; for the honor and glory of your name. Amen.

+The Peace

Presider: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

"If Ye Love Me"

Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)

If ye love me, keep my commandments,
And I will pray the Father,
And he shall give you another comforter,
That he may abide with you for ever,
Even the spirit of truth.

+Eucharistic Prayer 3

Enriching Our Worship

Presider: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

+Sanctus S-128

“Holy, holy, holy Lord”

William Mathias (1934-1992)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: “Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: “Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ’s coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit’s power, may be a people of hope, justice and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise. Blessed are you now and for ever. Amen.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,

now and for ever. Amen.

Presider: The Gifts of God for the People of God, offered in remembrance that Christ died for you. Feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

For those joining us online: If a person desires to receive the Sacrament, but is unable to eat and drink the Bread and Wine, they may be assured that all the benefits of Communion are received, even though the Sacrament is not received with the mouth. In this case, please recite the following prayer which has been adapted from A Prayer Book for the Armed Services 2008.

A Prayer for Communion with Christ

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated. I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving.... Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

sac-ri-fice; Lord, thy wounds our heal-ing give, with this true and liv-ing Bread; day by day with to thy cross we look and live: Je-sus, may we strength sup-plied, through the life of him who died.

ev-er be graft-ed, root-ed, built in thee.

Words: Josiah Conder (1789-1855), alt. Music: Jesu, Jesu, du mein Hirt, melody Paul Heinlein (1626-1686); harm. The English Hymnal, 1906.

Announcements

+The Postcommunion Prayer

Presider and People:

Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

+The Blessing

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.
