

All Saints' Episcopal Church

October 15, 2023, 10 am

The Twentieth Sunday After Pentecost

Welcome to All Saints'. We're glad you're here! We are a Christ-centered faith community in the Episcopal (Anglican) tradition where all are welcome. We come from many backgrounds and perspectives, but we share two common commitments: to grow in our love of God and our neighbors; and to see a world transformed by Jesus. No matter who you are or where you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here.

Please visit our website at www.allsaintsglenrock.org and sign up for News & Notes -- our weekly listing of services, ministries, and events. And join us again whenever you are able, or whenever the Spirit calls you closer to God. We'll always be happy to welcome you back, no matter the reason or the season.

Our Mission: At All Saints' Episcopal Church of Glen Rock, we strive to be a community that proclaims by word and example the good news of God in Christ: by seeking and serving Christ in all persons, loving our neighbors as ourselves, striving for justice and peace among all people, and respecting the dignity of every human being.

The Holy Eucharist

Today's liturgy is from The Book of Common Prayer 1979 (Expansive Language) and Enriching Our Worship.
Please stand as you are able where indicated with a "+."

+The Collect of the Day

Presider: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Let us pray.

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All are seated.

The Lessons

The First Reading

A reading from the book of Exodus, chapter 32, beginning at the first verse:

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, “Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.” Aaron said to them, “Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.” So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!” When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, “Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord.” They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel.

The Lord said to Moses, “Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!’” The Lord said to Moses, “I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.”

But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, “O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, ‘It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth?’ Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’” And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Exodus 32:1-14

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 106:1-6, 19-23

The Congregation is invited to sing the Refrain after it is sung first by the Choir, and wherever indicated (R). Verses will be sung by the Choir.

1. Hallelujah! Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, * for his mercy endures for ever.
2. Who can declare the mighty acts of the Lord * or show forth all his praise?
3. Happy are those who act with justice * and always do what is right! (R)
4. Remember me, O Lord, with the favor you have for your people, * and visit me with your saving help;
5. That I may see the prosperity of your elect and be glad with the gladness of your people, * that I may glory with your inheritance. (R)

continued...

6. We have sinned as our forebears did; *
we have done wrong and dealt wickedly.
19. Israel made a bull-calf at Horeb * and worshiped a molten image;
20. And so they exchanged their Glory * for the image of an ox that feeds on grass. (R)
21. They forgot God their Savior, * who had done great things in Egypt,
22. Wonderful deeds in the land of Ham, *
and fearful things at the Red Sea.
23. So he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, *
to turn away his wrath from consuming them. (R)

The Second Reading

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians, chapter four, beginning at the first verse:

My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Philippians 4:1-9

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

+The Holy Gospel

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once more Jesus spoke to the people in parables, saying: “The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.’ But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, ‘The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.’ Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

“But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?’ And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

Sermon

The Rev. Mark Robin Collins

+The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

+Prayers for the People

adapted from the New Zealand Prayer Book

In peace let us pray to God saying “Hear our prayer.”

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the holy Church of God, for the parishes of the Diocese of Newark, and especially for the renewal of our Preschool Ministry, let us pray to God.

Hear our prayer.

For Michael, our presiding bishop, Carlye, our bishop, and for Mark, our rector, and for all the clergy and people, let us pray to God.

Hear our prayer.

For the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority; for the borough of Glen Rock, for every city and community; for an end to division and strife, injustice and oppression, and for the unity of all, let us pray to God.

Hear our prayer.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray to God.

Hear our prayer.

For the aged and infirm, for the widowed and orphans, and for the sick and the suffering, especially Bernard, Shoba, Nancy, Matthew, Billy, Kathleen, Dan, Lian, Peggy, Ha Na, Norma, Karen, Dani, Cerise, Heather, Larry, Carole, Kathi, Marian, Norman, Robert, Barb, Floyd, Sharon, Jim, Dot, Ann, Edward, Andrew, Harlan, Alanna, Larry, Joan, Hal, Michael, Tammy, Nancy, Sarah, Jill, Norman, Vernon, Carolyn, Harold, Chuck, Karen, Henry, Ruth Anne, Jim, Katherine, Jill, Debbie, Fred, and Gert, let us pray to God.

Hear our prayer.

For the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and refugees, and for all who care and advocate for them, let us pray to God.

Hear our prayer.

For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, let us pray to God.

Hear our prayer.

In union with all the saints we commit ourselves, one another, and our whole life to Christ our Savior. Let us pray to God.

Hear our prayer.

Presider: God of mercy, you have given us grace to pray with one heart and one voice; and have promised to hear the prayers of two or three who agree in your name; fulfil now, we pray, the prayers and longings of your people as may be best for us. Grant us in this world to know your truth, and in the world to come to see your glory. Amen.

+Confession of Sin

Leader: Let us confess our sins to God.

A moment of silence may be kept.

Leader and People:

God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love
and serve only your will. Amen.

Priest: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

+The Peace

Presider: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: The Lord is here.

People: God's Spirit is with us.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to offer thanks and praise.

It is right indeed that we should praise you, God of love, our source and our fulfilment, for you create all things, and in you we live and move and have our being. Your wonder is manifest in land and sea and sky.

When the times had at last grown full and the earth had ripened in abundance, you made us in your image for yourself. And even though we turn from you, again and again you call us to yourself, and in every age, promise liberation. As a mother tenderly gathers her children, you embraced a people as your own to rear them in the way of your compassionate love.

From your own being you sent Jesus among us, incarnate of the Holy Spirit and born of Mary our sister. Jesus revealed your care for all you have made, and showed us the way of reconciliation. Looking forward to the joy of new life Jesus suffered the pangs of the cross and in rising again became the first-born of your renewed family.

You sent your Holy Spirit and gave birth to your church. Your Spirit stays to nurture and to guide us. Now as we gather around your table with all creation, we praise your unending love as we sing,

To you indeed be glory, almighty God, because on the night before he died, your Son, Jesus Christ, took bread; when he had given you thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup; when he had given you thanks, he gave it to them and said: This cup is the new covenant in my blood poured out for you; do this as often as you drink it to remember me.

And so in this great sacrament we celebrate and proclaim the mystery of our faith:

Christ has died,
Christ is risen,
Christ will come in glory.

Therefore, loving God, recalling now Christ's death and resurrection, we ask you to accept this our sacrifice of praise. Send your Holy Spirit upon us and our celebration, that we may be fed with the body and blood of your Son and be filled with your life and goodness. Strengthen us to do your work, and to be your loving presence in the world. Unite us in Christ and give us your peace. Through your Holy Spirit, may we who receive these gifts live lives of justice, love, and prayer, and be a voice for those who are not heard.

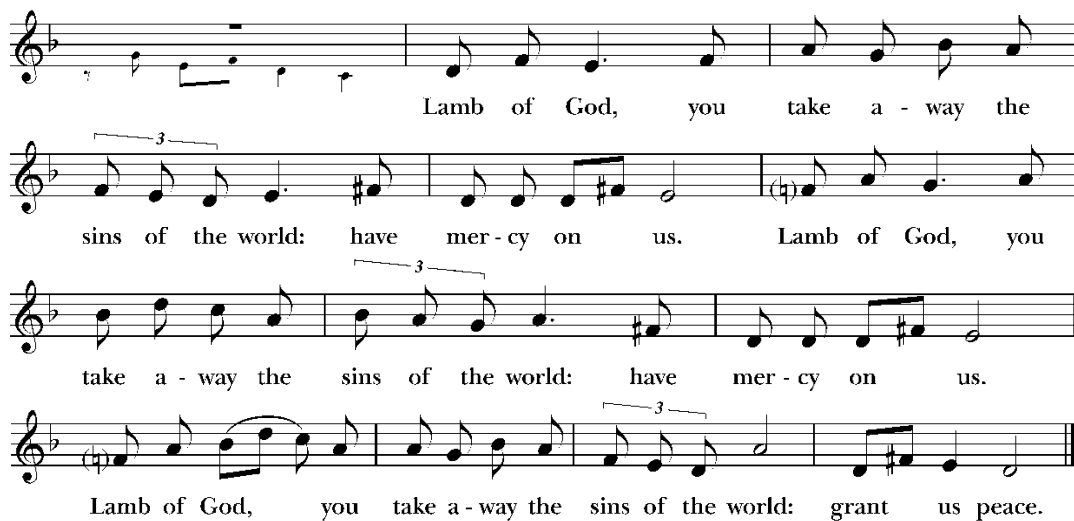

In union with your whole church we worship you, O God, in songs of everlasting praise.
Blessing, honor and glory be yours, here and everywhere, now and forever. AMEN.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

For those joining us online: If a person desires to receive the Sacrament, but is unable to eat and drink the Bread and Wine, they may be assured that all the benefits of Communion are received, even though the Sacrament is not received with the mouth. In this case, please recite the following prayer which has been adapted from A Prayer Book for the Armed Services 2008.

A Prayer for Communion with Christ

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated. I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving.... Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

All Your Preschool Questions Answered! Our Preschool reopening project now enters a really exciting phase: fundraising, renovation, and operational planning!

To respond to all the great questions raised by parishioners during our recent feasibility study, the Preschool Project Committee will be hosting a series of information sessions this fall. Please join us during Coffee Hour after the 10am service on the following dates to learn more:

- Oct 29th - Tour the Space and Review Plans and Renderings (Chapel Building)
- Nov 5th - Review the Financial Model and Funding Structure (St. Anne's Room)
- Nov 12th - Overall Information Session and Q&A (Parish Hall)

In addition, look out for informational mailings at home, as well as links to digital versions here in News and Notes!

It's getting cold outside! Drop off new and gently-used coats to All Saints' by Sunday, November 19. PLEASE NOTE: If the coats are used make sure they are clean and the pockets are empty. We will not donate dirty or damaged coats. New and gently-used coats will be distributed to through Oasis – a Haven for Women & Children and St. Paul's Men's Shelter both in Paterson. Drop off coats to church at either Sunday worship service and/or in the black Food Pantry bin by the preschool entrance off the parking lot before Sunday, November 19. This year they're also collecting Cold-Weather Accessories especially hats, gloves, and socks. Email Betsy McDonough at bmcdonough41@gmail.com for more information.

This is My Story: Learning to Share Our Faith Stories – Saturday, October 21 from 8:30 a to 12:30 p at St. Elizabeth’s, Ridgewood: Episcopalians tend toward a private faith, yet we live in a time when people struggle with anxiety, depression, and loneliness. Responding to that need requires us all – church leaders and new Christians alike – to develop the ability to share our faith stories. Join our Diocesan friends in this half-day workshop Saturday, October 21st from 8:30 a to 12:30 p at St. Elizabeth’s in Ridgewood. Dr. Lisa Kimball and the Rev. Dr. Tricia Lyons of Virginia Theological Seminary will present their joyful, fun approach to learning how to share our faith stories. Along with breakfast, we will have two speakers, Dr. Lisa Kimball and the Rev. Dr. Tricia Lyons, discussing how to tell our faith stories. Your $10 registration fee includes a light breakfast. Please forward this invitation to others you think would be interested. Find out more & register online: dioceseofnewark.org/faith-stories Preschool Project Feasibility Study Executive Summary: Thank you to all who responded to our preschool feasibility study survey. Results of the study can be found in the Executive Summary by Kirby-Smith Associates on the table in the back of the Chapel and Narthex. Parishioners and participants in the study can email the church office for the full version at info@allsaintsglenrock.org. For more information about the Preschool relaunch check out our website <https://www.allsaintsglenrock.org/preschool>.

Healing Eucharist Every 2nd Wednesday in the Chapel – next service November 8: Join Father Mark and the Healing Prayer Ministry every second Wednesday for a Healing Eucharist in the Chapel with the next service on Wednesday, November 8 at 7 pm. The monthly service will feature Communion, Anointing for Healing, and special readings and prayers for the healing of individuals, communities, our environment, and the world. All are welcome to join us with concerns for yourself, those you love, and the peace of the world.

Culture Close to Home Concert & Holiday Shoppe Craft Fair – Sunday, November 19 Concert at 3 pm and Craft Fair at 5 pm: Join us as we listen to acclaimed gospel trio Joshua Coyne, Alessandra Altieri-Coyne, and Emmett Tross followed by a concert reception and Holiday Shoppe Craft Fair in Parish Hall. The Holiday Shoppe will showcase beautiful art, and unique and useful handmade crafts, created by All Saints’ parishioners and Glen Rock artisans. Come sip, shop, and support All Saints’ Church and the Glen Rock community. About the All Saints’ Concert Series: The arts have long beautified Christian worship. In turn, the church has supported the arts for more than two millennia. All Saints’ Episcopal Church is proud to continue this tradition. We hope you’ll find that beautiful music is both a joy to the heart and solace for the soul. Email the church office at info@allsaintsglenrock.org with questions.

Follow signs to drop off donations in the bin outside the All Saints' Chapel building. Our volunteers bring food to the pantry weekly. See N&N for more info on St. Paul's Community Development Corporation (SPCDC) or if you're able to deliver.

Sunday School and Youth Group Information: The All Saints' Sunday School and Youth Group ranges in age from preschool through High School. Join us for fun, fellowship and learning! All are welcome! Sunday School for Preschool through 5th Graders meets each Sunday in the Parish Hall at 9:30 am. Middle School/High School Youth Group has meetings once a month on Sunday evenings and convenes for special projects at other times. Their activities are both service-focused and fellowship-based. Reach out to Annmarie Tarleton if you have questions or for more information at atarleton1@verizon.net and 201.787.2057.

Worship Volunteers needed at the 8 and 10 am services! We're looking for help in all forms: Acolytes, Altar Guild, Chalice Bearers, Intercessors, Lectors & Ushers at both Sunday services. Email the church office for more info (info@allsaintsglenrock.org) or ask Christine, Sue or Father Mark and they would be happy to tell you what's involved and how easy it is.

Join Our Ministries: Check out our Ministries Listing on the table in the Narthex to find other ways you can help at All Saints' and our community.

News & Notes (N&N): Email christine@allsaintsglenrock.org to receive N&N, All Saints' weekly e-newsletter, in your inbox at 6 am every Thursday morning.
