

All Saints' Episcopal Church

March 10, 2024, 10 am

The Fourth Sunday in Lent

Welcome to All Saints'. We're glad you're here! We are a Christ-centered faith community in the Episcopal (Anglican) tradition where all are welcome. We come from many backgrounds and perspectives, but we share two common commitments: to grow in our love of God and our neighbors; and to see a world transformed by Jesus. No matter who you are or where you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here.

Please visit our website at www.allsaintsglenrock.org and sign up for News & Notes -- our weekly listing of services, ministries, and events. And join us again whenever you are able, or whenever the Spirit calls you closer to God. We'll always be happy to welcome you back, no matter the reason or the season.

Our Mission: At All Saints' Episcopal Church of Glen Rock, we strive to be a community that proclaims by word and example the good news of God in Christ: by seeking and serving Christ in all persons, loving our neighbors as ourselves, striving for justice and peace among all people, and respecting the dignity of every human being.

In Our Prayers

+Penitential Rite

Presider: Blessed be the God of our salvation;

People: Who bears our burdens and forgives our sins.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

1 John 1:8,9

Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need

Hebrews 4:14,16

+Confession of Sin

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

A moment of silence may be kept.

Leader and People:

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Presider: Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

+The Collect of the Day

Presider: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Let us pray.

Gracious Father, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that he may live in us, and we in him; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

All are seated.

The Lessons

The First Reading

A reading from the book of Numbers, chapter 21, beginning at the fourth verse:

From Mount Hor the Israelites set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Numbers 21:4-9

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22

The congregation is invited to sing with the choir. Verses to be sung responsively, by the half verse, between the Cantor and Congregation. Plainsong Tone II.1

1. *Give thanks to the LORD, for / he is good, **
and his mercy endures / for ever.
2. Let all those whom the LORD has re/deemed proclaim * that he redeemed them from the hand / of the foe.
3. He gathered them out of the / lands; *
from the east and from the west,
from the north / and from the south.
17. Some were fools and took to re/bellious ways; *
they were afflicted because / of their sins.

continued...

18. They abhorred all manner of / food * and drew near / to death's door.
19. Then they cried to the LORD in their / trouble, * and he delivered them / from their distress.
20. He sent forth his word and / healed them * and saved / them from the grave.
21. Let them give thanks to the LORD for his / mercy * and the wonders he does for / his children.
22. Let them offer a sacrifice of thanks/giving * and tell of his acts / with shouts of joy.

The Second Reading

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians, chapter two, beginning at the first verse:

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ-- by grace you have been saved-- and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God-- not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

+The Holy Gospel

Reader: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

“Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.”

Sermon

Sue Morgan, MDiv

+The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

+The Lenten Prayers of the People

adapted from the Iona Community traditional Orthodox Chant, arr. Wayne F. Anthony, b. 1960

The Choir and Congregation will sing the response (R) after each prayer.

Response (R):

Intercessor:

We bring to God this congregation, its ministers, the parishes of the Diocese of Newark, and all who seek after God. In your mercy, (bells) (R)

We bring to God the troubled situations in our families, our communities, and throughout the world. In your mercy, (bells) (R)

We bring to God all who are sick or suffering, especially those who have asked for our prayers, and those commended to our prayers for healing. In your mercy, (bells) (R)

We bring to God those we find hard to forgive or trust. In your mercy, (bells) (R)

We bring to God the lonely, the forgotten, and those who have no one else to pray for them. In your mercy, (bells) (R)

We bring to God ourselves that we might grow in generosity of spirit, peace of mind and heart, and acceptance. In your mercy, (bells) (R)

We bring to God those nearing the end of their lives, and those who have died. In your mercy, (bells) (R)

The presider adds a concluding collect.

Offertory Anthem

"Amazing Grace"

Arr. by John Coates, Jr. (1938-2017)

Brendan Combs, piano

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

+Eucharistic Prayer A

Presider: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who was tempted in every way as we are, yet did not sin. By his grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer for ourselves alone, but for him who died for us and rose again.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Wonder, Love & Praise, 859

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Ronald Arnatt (1930-2018)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bles - sed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Presider: The Gifts of God for the People of God, offered in remembrance that Christ died for you. Feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

For those joining us online: If a person desires to receive the Sacrament, but is unable to eat and drink the Bread and Wine, they may be assured that all the benefits of Communion are received, even though the Sacrament is not received with the mouth. In this case, please recite the following prayer which has been adapted from A Prayer Book for the Armed Services 2008.

A Prayer for Communion with Christ

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated. I desire to offer to you praise and thanksgiving.... Since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Follow signs to drop off donations in the bin outside the All Saints' Chapel building. Our volunteers bring food to the pantry bi-weekly. In 2023, the Food Pantry served 1,606 families. See N&N for more info on SPCDC.

Join Our Ministries: Check out our Ministries Listing on the table in the Narthex to find ways you can help at All Saints' and in our community. Volunteer at the Sunday worship services as an Acolyte, Altar Guild, Chalice Bearer, Coffee Hour Host, Intercessor, Lector, and/or Usher. Email the church office info@allsaintsglenrock.org, ask Father Mark, Sue or anyone else listed on the back of this leaflet for more info.

News & Notes (N&N): Check out N&N, All Saints' weekly e-newsletter, in your email inbox at 6 am every Thursday morning for more information on anything listed above.
