

FURSEY GOTUACO

Fursey Gotuaco is a 3-time District Champion winner in District 25 and 85, in both Table Topics and International Speech Contest. In 2020, he reached the Semifinals of The World Championship of Public Speaking and was a Finalist in 2022. In August of 2020, he won District 25's Toastmaster of the Year.

Fursey is an Executive Speech Coach who has been teaching theatre, and speech for over 30 years. As a Toastmaster for over 5 years, he has been sharing his insights of successful speaking around the globe. Now, he's ready to help you move forward on your personal speaking journey. Are you ready?

Educational Workshop Session

PAGE TO STAGE

How do we take the words from your mind and maximize their impact on an audience? In this interactive session, you will have the opportunity to master the fine art of influencing your audience with your voice and your physicality. In just a few short minutes, you will demistify and master the techniques that professional presenters and actors have been using to inspire their audiences.

What 3 Incredible Takeaways TLI Attendees Will Leave With?

1. The science of hand gestures and controlled body movement
2. How to increase the resonance of your voice
3. How to key your words to make your speeches sound more exciting