

Charlene Rhinehart, DTM

Charlene Rhinehart is a distinguished speaker, emcee, and financial media personality. At the remarkably young age of 25, she earned the prestigious title of Distinguished Toastmaster, setting a record in Illinois Toastmasters' history.

She has made over 100 speaking appearances for organizations, such as Crain's Business, Surgent CPA Review, Stocks & Stilettos Society, and The Motley Fool.

Educational Workshop Session

How to Prepare to Speak Professionally

The session will be on:
This session will cover essential aspects of transitioning from a Toastmasters Club Member to a professional speaker. I will share my personal experiences and insights, including my journey from Toastmasters to becoming a professional speaker. The key topics will include creating a professional speaker's toolkit, consisting of a one-sheet and a speaking reel, understanding the importance of knowing your audience and tailoring your message to effectively reach them, and finally, the considerations and strategies behind selecting appropriate speaking fees. This session aims to provide practical guidance and tips for those aspiring to make a career out of public speaking.

What 3 Incredible Takeaways TLI Attendees Will Leave With?

1. How to build your professional speaking toolkit, and creating a compelling one sheet.
2. How to enhance your online presence and reach potential clients.
3. How to expand your professional network and attract more opportunities that align with your expertise.