

Melody Byrd, DTM

"T-Factor"
Education Speaker

For over 15 years, Melody Byrd, DTM, the current President of Prosperity Toastmasters Club, has been a dynamic Toastmasters, who is passionately guiding individuals to level up their communication and leadership skills.

In her 9 to 5, she mentors budding tech professionals by honing their soft skills in communication, teamwork, and leadership. Her expertise spans across the US and now in Singapore, where she has been thriving for the past three years. Since her move from Chicago, Melody has fully embraced the vibrant culture of Southeast Asia. She delights in exploring new destinations, savoring mouth-watering Indian cuisine, and dancing to the infectious sounds of Afrobeats music.

T-Factor Education Session

"You Have the Right to Remain Silent... But Should You?"

The Unexpected Link Between Communication and Time Management

Discover the hidden connection between authentic communication and effective time management in this engaging workshop. Learn how best practices in communication and time management can enhance your productivity.

You will learn how to:

1. Elevate your communication skills.
2. Take control of your time with practical tools and strategies.

Don't miss this opportunity to unlock the unexpected benefits of managing your time by speaking up when it matters.