Deacon Mike Mims was born and raised in California. Before he could drive, he could fly, achieving his pilot's license at the age of 15. Eventually he earned his instrument rating and loved to fly aerobatics. He attended college at USC and eventually became a Petroleum Engineer. Deacon Mike and his wife of 30 years, Kate, have 3 sons and 7 grandchildren. They were original parishioners of St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church and have since been involved in many ministries. All his life Deacon Mike Mims was a person who made goals, focused on them, prayed about them and then did the work. His faith journey took him from a protestant boy who met and accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior, through RCIA and becoming Catholic, to the seminary and eventually to be an ordained Deacon in the Catholic Church. He was constantly in contact with God and looking for new ways to grow his faith. After becoming a Deacon, he did not stop growing in his faith; rather, he became a missionary in deed as well as word.
