

Senior

Resource Session

at the Evanston Health, Housing, Education, and Employment Day

Saturday, April 11
10 - 11 a.m.

@ The Evanston
Recreation Center

with a panel discussion led by State Representative and Walnut Hills High School graduate Ashley Bryant Bailey

Activities:

- Community groups offering services for seniors
- Free health screenings
- Information on housing and home support
- Opportunity to connect with neighbors and community leaders
- Live Q&A led by State Representative Ashley Bryant Bailey
 - Featuring Council on Aging, PACE, Pro Seniors, SO-ACT, and OSHIIP

We're coming together to make sure every older adult in Evanston has what they need to stay healthy, supported, and thriving.