

“You Welcomed Me...”

Students at Colegio Luterano Salvadoreno (RHLS/RHLP Sister School)

When Jesus saw this, he was upset and said to them, “Let the little children come to me. Don’t stop them...” Mark 10:14 This statement is so powerful it is listed in three gospels: Mark, Matthew and Luke. “Let the children come to me.”

Please join us on Sunday, January 27, 2019 for a presentation about El Colegio Luterano School in El Salvador. All are invited to experience the tastes of El Salvador on the patio after both the 9am & 11am services.

In celebration of 10 years of partnership with El Salvador Lutheran Church & School

Resurrection Lutheran church & school have been in partnership with the Colegio Luterano Salvadoreno since 2008, and we have been blessed beyond measure as we “let the children come to us.” The Colegio in El Salvador has shown what can happen when children are protected and given the opportunity to learn.

The current principal, David Mena, is one of many success stories of what can happen when children are blessed by others and allowed to go to school. David’s family made sure he received a great education at the Colegio Luterano, that he continued his education in high school and college and that learning was a fundamental part of his life. David was so blessed by this love and caring that he returned to the very place where his education began to become a teacher and the principal!

David knows how important an education is in taking these children out of the deepest poverty, keeping them out of the violent gangs that run the streets, and helping them learn and grow so they can help their families and give back to their community in a positive and meaningful way. Please consider sharing in the education of these amazing children by making a donation or sponsoring a student.

Please pray this prayer for our Sister School this week:

Good and gracious God, we are blessed beyond measure by all that you have given to us. Let us share this with the children and educators of our sister school. We ask this in your Son’s holy and precious name. Amen
