HELPING WOMEN EMBRACE THEIR WHOLE STORY

For many of us our self-talk sounds like “I can’t” or “I’m not good enough” or “if others knew what I have done.” We can overcome negative emotions and painful pasts by leaning into the One who has power to save and to heal. Learn the remedy to taking brave steps and finding healing, forgiveness, and peace from your past that brings hope and enables you to move forward.

Coffee, donuts and box lunch provided, no childcare available.
