Want to Eat Wyoming?

Stock your kitchen with fruits, veggies, meats and dairy from our local farmers and ranchers?

For your convenience, Wyoming farmers and ranchers collaborate with the state-wide food hub EatWyoming.com to offer online ordering and delivery. Now, you can eat the freshest local food, ferry the kids to practice, change the oil, mow the lawn, and take the boat out. You can do it all, and conveniently buy local!

Here's how:

- Subscribe to the VeggieBox for a weekly or "leap frog" every-other-week delivery of seasonally fresh, locally grown fruits and vegetables grown in Fremont County and across the Cowboy State.
- Order your proteins - milk, yogurt, butter, lamb, chicken, and don't forget the beef! - for delivery with your VeggieBox.
- Then, select your favorite sauces, marinades, spreads, seasonings, and flours.
- As you fill your online basket, sneak in the ice cream!
- For your busy weeks, order prepared meals from local ingredients.
- At checkout, select Dubois as your pickup location.
