Program:

[Re]Design Saginaw was created in 2017 and designed to give local high school and Delta College students a taste of what a career in architecture might look like. The program is a five day long externship during which the students work in groups of 2-4 and are given a design challenge to work through. This year's program is entitled Year 4: The Rebirth of Holy Places; The Abandoned Church Epidemic. The students will do site analysis, programming, and design utilizing the former First Baptist Church currently owned by Great Lakes Bay Health Centers located at 321 N. Warren Avenue, Saginaw, Michigan.
