“The Massachusetts Justice, Equity & Accountability in Law Enforcement Act: One Year Later”

Featuring

Kade Crockford

Director, Technology for Liberty Program, Massachusetts ACLU

Eric P. Lesser

Massachusetts State Senate, 1st Hampden & Hampshire District

Bud L. Williams

Massachusetts House of Representatives, 11th Hampden District

Michael Wynn

Chief of Police, Pittsfield, Massachusetts Police Department

Overview:

This distinguished panel of experts will provide perspectives into the Massachusetts Justice, Equity and Accountability in Law Enforcement Act that was enacted into law on December 31, 2020. The law creates a mandatory certification process for police officers and increases accountability and transparency in law enforcement. As a follow-up to the previous webinar presented in May 2021, the panelists will update the status of the implementation of the Act focusing on the recommendations from Commissions concerning Qualified Immunity, Use of Facial Recognition Software, and Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST).

Date and Time:

Tuesday, May 31, 2022, 6:30 pm ET
