

Emmy Sale is a high school student at the Bronx High School of Science. In her free time, she plays soccer, lacrosse, runs track, and participates in Public Forum - Speech and Debate. She is also involved in the Biology Research Program. Emmy loves animals, and has two dogs, two guinea pigs, and a cat.

This summer, Emmy hopes to explore interests in health, and she is excited to be involved as a CCCEH Intern learning about children's environmental health and justice.
