Opening Prayer -

Co-Pastor Dcn Rosean Amaral
Let us pray...

Father Teri Harroun Declaration of Interdependence (Written by Melanie Bacon and adapted):

God of interdependence, help us hold these truths to be self-evident:

That all life is interconnected, and endowed by You, our Creator, with certain inalienable rights and responsibilities,

That among these are presence, compassion, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights and responsibilities,

We open our minds and hearts to the needs of others, and our own true needs,

We hear the sound of the living universe in our ears, and add our voices to the song.

And for the support of this Declaration, we pledge to each other our love and our breath, For the freedom of the one is the freedom of the all, and the pain of the one is the pain of the all; The breath of the one is the breath of the all,
and the breath of the all is the breath of God.
We ask this in the name of the Creator of all,

All: Amen

Co-Pastor Dcn Rosean Amaral
And now let us listen to the inspired Word of God in our midst

Responsorial Psalm from Ezekiel — Lector Pedro Engel

Response is: Listen with your heart to the voice of God.

All: Listen with your heart to the voice of God.

The moment I heard the Voice, the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. "You must speak my words to the Israelites whether they hear or resist, because they are rebellious.

At least they will know a prophet has been among them.

All: Listen with your heart to the voice of God.

Now go to the exiles, to your own people, and speak to them. Whether they hear or refuse to hear, say to them, 'Thus says your God!'"

All: Listen with your heart to the voice of God.

The Second Reading Lector Cindy Cloyd

A Reading adapted from Prophets as Poets, Fr. Richard Rohr

We often think of prophets as scolds, rather judgmental and cranky, but Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel reminds us of their essential gifts of creativity and imagination:

The prophet is a poet. What the poets know as poetic inspiration, the prophets call divine revelation. . . .

Like a poet, the prophet is endowed with sensibility, enthusiasm, and tenderness, and above all, with a way of thinking imaginatively. Prophecy is the product of poetic imagination. Rohr goes on to say - One of the most recent encounters I've had with "poetic prophecy" occurred when Amanda Gorman, a young Catholic woman and United States Youth Poet Laureate, wrote and performed a poem for the recent Presidential Inauguration.

She begins her poem "The Hill We Climb" by asking in the style of the psalms of lamentation, "When day comes we ask ourselves, where can we find light in this never-ending shade?" She then references the sign of the reluctant prophet Jonah: "We've braved the belly of the beast; we've learned that quiet isn't always peace." Like the prophets of old, she holds us accountable for our actions: "we know our inaction and inertia will be the inheritance of the next generation. . . . Our blunders become their burdens" .

With the prophet Zechariah, she envisions a time of peace and plenty when "everyone shall sit under their own vine and fig tree and no one shall make them afraid" (3:10).

She closes her poem with the challenge to us: When day comes we step out of the shade, aflame and unafraid, the new dawn blooms as we free it.

For there is always light, if only we're brave enough to see it. If only we're brave enough to be it.

Gospel Reading – Mark 3. 20-22, 31-35, 6. 1-6 Co-Pastor Dcn Rosean Amaral

The Risen Christ be with you all.
A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark

ALL: And also with you.
ALL: Glory to you, O God+

On the day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb... Jesus' disciples went off into the city... and they prepared the Passover.

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them saying, "Take this and eat. This is my body."

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them. They all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant which will be shed for many."

Creed Father Teri Harroun

In love and in light, we profess our faith together:

All: We believe in God who is creator and nurturer of all. We believe in Jesus, the Christ, who is our love, our hope, and our light. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the breath of Wisdom Sophia, who energizes and guides us to build caring communities and to challenge oppression, exploitation, and injustices. We believe that God loves us passionately and forgives us everything.

We believe that we are radiant images of God who calls us to live fully, love tenderly, and serve generously. We believe in the communion of saints, our heavenly friends, who support us on life's journey. We believe in the partnership and equality of women and men in our church and world.

We believe that all are one in the Heart of God. Here on this earth we are meant to dwell in loving relationships. Here we live out our prophetic call of Gospel equality. Amen.

Offertory Song (please join in singing)

This Land is Your Land

This Land Is Your Land This land is your land and this land is my land From California to the New York island From the redwood forest to the Gulf Stream waters This land was made for you and me

As I went walking that ribbon of highway I saw above me that endless skyway Saw below me that golden valley This land was made for you and me

This land is your land and this land is my land From California to the New York island From the redwood forest to the Gulf Stream waters This land was made for you and me

I roamed and rambled and I've followed my footsteps To the sparkling sands of her diamond deserts All around me a voice was sounding This land was made for you and me

This land is your land and this land is my land From California to the New York island From the redwood forest to the Gulf Stream waters This land was made for you and me

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Preparation of our Tables

Co-Pastor Dcn Rosean Amaral

As we prepare our tables, offering food and drink here and in our homes, we are reminded that our offerings of time, talent and treasure sustain the mission of God's Church. Continue to give as you are called and able. The offertory basket is here at the altar for any offering you may have.

Preparation of the Gifts

Father Teri Harroun

Blessed are you, Loving God of all Creation, through your goodness we have these gifts to place on your table, which is the entire world. They represent our lives, and all that we have to offer. Through you may they become the Light of Christ in your world.

ALL: Blessed be God forever.

Blessed are you, Loving God of all Creation, through your goodness we have this bread and this wine to place on your table. Work of earth and human hands. May it become our spiritual food and drink.

ALL: Blessed be God forever.

God, wash away my iniquities, cleanse me.

Pray my sisters and brothers, my family, that these our gifts, our lives may continue to be blessed by our Loving God.

ALL: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at our hands, for the praise and glory of God's name, for our good and the good of all God's world.

The peace of our God be with you all.

ALL: And also with you.

Let us open our hearts.

ALL: We open them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to our Loving God.

ALL: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Eucharistic Prayer

Thanks and praise we gladly bring, O God of mystery, for though your nature is unexplainable, your greatness is known in all the world and your glory reaches beyond the stars. In the first of your acts long ago, before the mountains had been shaped or springs brought forth water, you breathed your Spirit to work beside you like a skilled artist, dancing joyously to the music of creation and delighting with you in the works of your hand. And now through this same Holy Spirit, your love has been poured into our hearts, your words have been whispered into our ears, and all that you have transformed through Jesus Christ is made known to us. Now, with all of creation, with the angels and shepherds, we are glad to sing:

Holy: (please join in singing)

ALL: Holy Holy Holy

Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest,

hosanna in the highest.

The Words of Institution – Father Teri Harroun

God, You are most Holy. Send your Holy Spirit upon us to plant the seeds of your reign within us that we may become signs of your love in the world. + Let also your Spirit come upon these gifts of bread and wine to make them holy so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of our brother, Jesus the Christ.

God, we have set these tables before you, when all the world is Your Table. We remember, that on the night before our brother Jesus died, he shared a meal with his followers, his family, and his friends at another table. We recall how he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it, he broke it, and gave it to them saying

ALL: "Take this all of you and eat it. This is my body which will be given up for you."

That same night, Jesus also took the cup filled with wine, and after giving thanks, passed it to his friends, saying,

ALL: "Take this all of you and drink from it. This is the cup of my blood. The blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me."

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith....

All: Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Beloved God, Creator of all, You have invited each of us here today, and so we gather at many tables. But we are confident that all Tables are Your Table, O God. We remember all those who have been made in your image, every person in this world. We ask that you draw us together in peace and flourishing, as you draw us all closer to you.

We are confident, God, that you remember also our ancestors, who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection. Welcome them to gaze upon Your Face and enjoy your eternal embrace. Shower us all with grace, along with all of creation.

God, like all the holy ones before us, we live and die and are raised as One in you. May our experience in you bring forth your Reign and universal flourishing forever.

Together now, we say.....

ALL: Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours all loving God, forever and ever.

Amen Mass of the Joyful Heart (please join in singing)

Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.

All: Abba/Amma in heaven, Holy be Your name. Your kin-dom come, Your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kin-dom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen

The Shared Table - Father Teri Harroun

This is the Living God, the Body and Blood of Christ. This is the one who transforms the world. This is the One who transforms us. Blessed are we who are called to this meal.

ALL: Lord, I am worthy to receive you, because you have said the word and I am healed.

Invitation to Communion

We are invited to this God's Table just as we are. Wherever you are on this journey of life, you are welcome here, here in this place, here in this community, here at this table.

Come, children of God, come and know God's presence, and receive God's grace

Communion Song - (please join in singing)

Come to the Lord

1. Do not let your hearts be troubled.
Children, do not fear.
Though you suffer as I suffered,
I am always near.

Refrain
Come to the Lord;
come to the table of lasting life.
Bring your burdens;
there's no price,
just come to the Lord.

2. I will never leave you orphans;
you are not alone.
I have made your place in heaven,
in my father's home.

3. Eat this bread and never hunger;
I will give you life.
Drink the cup I place before you;
you will never die.

Prayer after Communion and Blessing

Co-Pastor Dcn Rosean Amaral
Let us pray...

Father Teri Harroun

God at the center of all circles:
May this meal we share feed us, and bring us as One into the Body of Christ. May this sacrament fill us with the Love of God, the three in One. In Jesus' name we pray.

ALL: Amen

The Love of God be with you all.

ALL: And also with you.

Please open your hearts as we ask for God's blessing.

God of all peoples, Creator of the universe, help us remember that you are inside us, and you are inside every person: everyone who ever was and ever will be.

And because of that, we are part of everything, not separate at all. We are connected to every person by your breath that flows through all Creation, through all time.

So here in this time, in this space, we ask you to bless us, in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

ALL: AMEN.

Dismissal Co-Pastor Dcn Rosean Amaral

We are the Light of the Nations. As that Light, may we love and serve God as we get to love and serve in God's world. ALL: Thanks be to God.

Closing Song - (please join in singing)

America The Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain, For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain!

America! America! God shed His grace on thee, And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet Whose stern impassioned stress, A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness!

America! America! God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control, Thy liberty in law!

Katherine Lee Bates wrote the poem America the Beautiful. Her poem first appeared in print on July 4, 1895 in The Congregationalist, a weekly journal.
Ms. Bates revised the lyrics in 1904 and again in 1913..
