

Housing Insecurity: A Threat to Behavioral Health

Housing and mental health are interdependent:
65% of unstably housed adult Coloradans experienced poor mental health in 2021, up from 47% in 2019

Panel members will share insights about issues Coloradans confront maintaining housing stability and behavioral health, and the community services needed to address the interdependence of both issues.

Panel Facilitator: Jacob Bornstein, Principal & Master Facilitator, Wellstone Collaborative Strategies.

Rep. Dylan Roberts, Colorado District 26, Affordable Housing Transformational Task Force.

Rep. Judy Amabile, Colorado District 13, Behavioral Health Transformational Task Force.

Gia Heflin, Rental Program Manager, Neighbor to Neighbor (N2N).

Stephanie Madsen-Pixler, Dir. Community Based Services, Summitstone Health Partners.

Kayleigh Harris, Peer Specialist, Summitstone Health Partners.

A Community Presentation
Hosted by the League of Women Voters of Larimer County

April 11, 2022, 7 - 9pm via Zoom
Register at <https://www.lwv-larimercounty.org>

From the CALENDAR, click on the meeting link on April 11
Affordable Housing & Health Care Teams Housing Insecurity: A Threat to Behavioral Health
Complete the registration