The Summons

1. Will you come and follow me
If I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
And never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown,
Will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown
In you and you in me?

2. Will you leave yourself behind
If I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
And never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare
Should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer pray'r
In you and you in me?

4. Will you love the 'you' you hide

If I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
And never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found
To reshape the world around,
Through my sight and touch and sound
In you and you in me?

5. Lord, your summons echoes true
When you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
And never be the same.
In your company I'll go
Where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
In you and you in me.

Opening Prayer - Co-Pastor Rev Jane Reina

Let us pray...

Loving God, you invite us all,
in our many ways as pastors and ministers of your people, to desire to serve rather than be served.

May we be useful in our work, and faithful in our prayer, performing the ministries to which we are called with gentleness and compassion for others.

We ask this through Jesus our brother and Shepherd together with the Spirit, one with you, forever. All: Amen

Let us listen to the word of God in our midst....

Liturgy of the Word

1st Reading - An excerpt from The Book of the Lover and the Beloved, by Ramon Lull written in 13th century

Lector Art Bavoso

r

The lover was asked to whom he belonged.
He answered,	"To love."
"What are you made of?"	"Of Love."
"Who gave birth to you?"	"Love."
"Where were you born?"	"In love."
"Who brought you up?"	"Love."
"How do you live?"	"By Love."
"What is your name?"	"Love."
"Where do. you come from?"	"From Love."
"Where are you going?"	"To Love."
"Where are you now?"	"In Love."

"Have you anything other than love?"

"Yes, I have faults and wrongs against my Beloved."

"Is there pardon in your Beloved?"

The Lover said that in his Beloved were mercy and justice, and that he therefore lived between fear and hope.

Words Inspired by God.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm 26 — Lector Art Bavoso

The response is: : Blessed are you, O my Beloved!

All: Blessed are you, O my Beloved!

Speak on my behalf, O Beloved,
for I would choose the path that leads back Home, trusting in your love without reserve.
May my heart be as your Heart;
May my mind be as your Mind.
May your steadfast love guide me
As I live according to your Will.

Response: Blessed are you, O my Beloved!

You, O Counselor, are my strength and my guide;
so I choose the path of peace and wholeness.
O Loving Presence, I cherish your dwelling place,
my heart;

O, that I might radiate Love Divine.
Keep me always. in your presence,
Ever-ready to praise your name.

Response: Blessed are You, O my Beloved!

I choose the path of peace and wholeness;
The Counselor is my strength and my guide.
Standing with equanimity in heaven's blessed company, I shall know Love and Peace beyond the world's understanding.

Blessed are You, O my Beloved!

2nd Reading; 1Corinthians 12. 1-11- Lector David Cloyd

Sisters and brothers, I want to instruct you on the matter of spiritual gifts. Remember how, when you were still nonbelievers, you were drawn to mute idols and led astray by them?

It is for this reason that I want you to understand that no one can be speaking under the influence of the Holy Spirit and say, "Curse Jesus"; by the same token, no can say "Jesus Christ reigns supreme", unless under the influence of the Holy Spirit.

There is a variety of gifts, but always the same Spirit. There is a variety of ministries, but we serve the same One. There is a variety of outcomes, but the same God is working in all of them. To each person is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

To one, The Spirit gives wisdom in discourse, to another, the word of knowledge through the same Spirit. Through the Spirit, one person receives faith; through the same Spirit another is given the gift of healing; and still another, miraculous powers. Prophecy is given to one; to another, power to distinguish one spirit from another. One receives the gift of tongues; another, that of interpreting tongues. But it is one and the same Spirit who produces all these gifts and distributes them as she wills.

Listen to the Spirit speaking to God's people

ALL: Thanks be to God

Gospel Reading – John 4. 1-3, 5-14, 21-26 Co-Pastor Dcn Rosean Amaral

Our Christ is with you.

A reading from the holy gospel according to John

When Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard he was attracting and baptizing more disciples than John—though it was really not Jesus baptizing, but his disciples—he left Judea and returned to Galilee. He stopped in Samaria beside Jacob’s well.

Jesus weary from the journey, came and sat by the well. It was around noon. When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.” The disciples had gone off to the town to buy provisions. The Samaritan woman replied, “You’re a Jew. How can you ask me, a Samaritan for a drink?”—since Jews had nothing to do with Samaritans.

Jesus answered, “If only you recognized God’s gift, and who it is that is asking you for a drink, you would have asked him for a drink instead, and he would have given you living water.”

“If you please,” she challenged Jesus, “you don’t have a bucket and this well is deep. Where do you expect to get this ‘living water’? surely you don’t pretend to be greater than our ancestors Leah and Rachel and Jacob, who gave us this well and drank from it with their descendants and flocks?”

ALL: And also with you.

ALL: Glory to you, O God.

Jesus replied, “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. But those who drink the water I give them will never be thirsty; no, the water I give will become fountains within them, springing up to provide eternal life.”

The woman said to Jesus, “Give me this water so that I won’t be thirsty and have to keep coming all the way here to draw water.”

Jesus told her, “Believe me, the hour is coming when you’ll worship God neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you don’t understand; we worship what we do understand—after all, salvation is from the Jewish people. Yet the hour is coming—and is already here—when real worshipers will worship God in Spirit and truth. Indeed, it is just such worshipers whom God seeks. God is Spirit, and those who worship God must worship in spirit and truth.”

The woman said to Jesus, “I know that the Messiah—the Anointed One—is coming and will tell us everything. Jesus replied, “I who speak to you am the Messiah.”

The Good News of Salvation of Jesus our Christ

ALL: Praise to you, Jesus the Christ

Pastor Jane will acknowledge all the people who gave her the space for ordination to the priesthood.

Affirmation Blessing by the Community of Rev. Jane Reina:

Leadership Council member, David Cloyd

Our pastor, Reverend Jane Reina, was ordained by Bishop Francis one year ago today. As our community could not physically be there with her, we are offering this blessing as an affirmation of her call to the priesthood. The pictures on the slides are from her ordination. Please raise your hands and lift your spirit toward Rev. Jane as we pray the blessing together.

A Blessing for Rev. Jane Reina

ALL: O Endearing Spirit of the Holy One, How tenderly you have enfolded Jane in God's creative love throughout the years! O Holy One, we ask that you continue to set your seal of love
upon her heart.

Open her eyes to see the many ways she is cherished and held dear by our Loving Creator.
Renew her desire to put down deep roots into the Word of God. Fulfill her yearning to grow stronger in her faith by grounding her in Sacred Scripture and holy work.

Bless the many holy guides who have given so much of their time for the enrichment of her spiritual life. Bless too all those who have come to know you through her gentle guidance. May this marvelous exchange of the Word of God among one another help each of us to know and accept how dear we are. O Endearing One, enable Jane to be drawn to the things that really matter—ever and ever. Amen.

Healing Waters

1 Refrain

Healing waters, flow over me.
Mercy's water, renewing me.
Mercy's ocean, transforming me.
Healing water, renew me.

1. Renew my heart, O God, come change my hardened heart,
come fill my hardened heart with mercy.
You are the water of life.
You are the breath of heaven,

come fill my hardened heart with mercy, Lord.

2. Wash me in waters of love;
cleanse me and purify me,
for only you can cleanse me, Lord.
Wash over me, O Lord.
Refresh my thirsty soul
for you alone can make me holy, Lord.

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Preparation of our Tables

Co-Pastor Dcn Rosean Amaral

As we prepare our tables, offering food and drink here and in our homes, we are reminded that our offerings of time, talent and treasure sustain the mission of God's Church. Continue to give as you are called and able. The offertory basket is here at the altar for any offering you may have.

Preparation of the Gifts

Co-Pastor Rev Jane Reina

Blessed are you, God of all creation, through your goodness we have this bread to offer, which earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for us the bread of life.

ALL: Blessed be God forever.

By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

Blessed are you, God of all creation,

through your goodness we have this wine to offer. Fruit of the vine and work of human hands, it will become our spiritual drink.

ALL: Blessed be God forever.

God, we ask you to receive us and be pleased with the sacrifice we offer you with humble and contrite hearts.

Lord, wash away my iniquity; cleanse me from my sin.

Pray, brothers and sisters, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the Source and Ground of our Being.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of God's name, for our good, and the good of all the Church.

Prayer over the Gifts

Co-Pastor Rev Jane Reina

Loving God, accept these gifts we now offer You, taken from the earth and transformed by human hands into bread and wine for this table.

May these gifts be transformed by your Spirit into the body and blood of Christ, ever-present in your people gathered.
We ask this through Christ the Lord..

Our Christ is with you.

Lift up your hearts.

Let us give thanks to our God.

All: And also with you.

All: We lift them up to God.

All: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Amma/Abba God, we do well always and everywhere to offer you thanks through Jesus our Christ.

Christ is the true and eternal priest who established this unending sacrifice. Offering himself for the liberation of all your children, he gave us this memorial of his passion to bring us its saving power until the end of time.

As we receive his words, revealed for us, we have life. As we eat his body, broken for us, we grow in strength. As we drink his blood, poured out for us, we are washed clean.

Now, with angels and archangels and the whole company of heaven, we say the unending hymn of your praise.

ALL: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Holy Mystery.
Hosanna in the highest.

Eucharistic Prayer

We come to you, Holy Mystery, with praise and thanksgiving, through Jesus our Christ. Through Christ we ask you to accept and bless ✠ these gifts we offer you in sacrifice.

We offer them for your holy catholic Church;
watch over it, and guide it; grant it peace and unity throughout the world.

Make us grow in love, together with all who hold and teach the Catholic faith handed down to us from the Apostles, with all laypersons, deacons, priests, and bishops, especially those of the Rocky Mountain Region and throughout our Communion in union with our bishops, Francis and Denise.

Remember all our sisters and brothers of many faiths and spiritual paths, who each bring their own insights and blessings to our world.

Bless and approve this offering from your whole family; make it acceptable to You, an offering in spirit and in truth. Let it become for us ✠ the body and blood of Jesus Christ, your only Son, our Lord.

The day before he suffered he took bread in his sacred hands and looking up to heaven, he gave You whom he called Abba thanks and praise.

He broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said:

ALL: Take this, all of you, and eat it. This is my body, which will be given up for you.

When supper was ended, he took the cup,
again he gave You thanks and praise,
gave the cup to his friends and said:

ALL: Take this, all of you, and drink from it.
This is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant.

It will be shed for you and for all, so that sins may be forgiven. Do this, in memory of me.

Co-Pastor Dcn. Pastor Rosean

Let us proclaim the mystery of our faith:

All: Christ has died. Christ has risen. Christ will come again.

Co-Pastor Rev Jane Reina

Amma/Abba, we celebrate the memory of Jesus our Christ and Savior. We, your people and your ministers, recall his passion, his resurrection from the dead, and his ascension into glory; and from the many gifts You have given us we offer to You, God of glory and majesty, this holy and perfect sacrifice: the bread of life and the cup of eternal salvation.

Remember, Lord, those who have died...

With your holy angels who see you face to face, may they find in your presence light, happiness, and peace. For ourselves, too, we ask some share in the peace of Christ.

Though we are sinners, we trust in your mercy and love. Do not consider what we truly deserve, but through the ministry of your Jesus grant us your forgiveness.

Through him you give us all these gifts. You fill them with life and goodness, you bless them and make them holy.

All: Through Christ, with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for all glory and honor is yours, Almighty Father, forever and ever. Amen

The Prayer of Jesus - Co-Pastor Rev Jane Reina

Let us pray with confidence in the words our Savior gave us:

All: Abba/Amma in heaven, Holy be Your name. Your kin-dom come, Your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kin-dom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen

Deliver us, Lord, from every evil, and grant us peace in our day. In your mercy keep us free from sin and protect us from all anxiety as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior, Jesus our Christ.

All: Amen

The Shared Table - Co-Pastor Rev Jane Reina

ALL: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Co-Pastor Rev Jane Reina

This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. Happy are we who are called to this supper.

ALL: Jesus, our Christ, I am worthy to receive you, because by your word I am healed.

In this we are a Eucharistic People, the Body of Christ incarnate, the Blood of Christ poured out for the life of the world.

Invitation to Communion

Even while the community joining us remotely cannot receive the fullness of this Eucharistic feast, still we are a Eucharistic People, the Body of Christ incarnate, the Blood of Christ poured out for the life of the world.

And so we commit ourselves to the community of faith in which this wonder unfolds.
May the mystery of our participation in this sacred mystery enliven our faith, inspire our service, and incarnate your Love wherever we may be.

This is the table of Christ who invites all into Love. All, in this place and remotely, are invited to this feast of death and life.
