Fish With Me

1. Jesus saw them fishing by the shore of Galilee, casting out their nets into the sea.
Simon Peter, Andrew and the sons of Zebedee, waiting in their boats so patiently.
And Jesus said,

Refrain

“Oh, come and follow me.

Oh, leave behind your nets. I call you.

Oh, come and fish with me,
and your life will never be the same again.”

2. A rich young person came to Jesus looking for advice. “How can I obtain eternal life?”
Jesus told him, “Honor the commandments of the Lord. Then sell off all your riches for the poor.”
And Jesus said,
(to Refrain)

Liturgy of the Word

First WORD proclaimed: Jonah 3 1-10 – Lector Matt Chavez

The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying,

“Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.”

So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD.

Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city,
a three days' walk across.

Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's walk.

And he cried out,

“Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!”

And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast,
and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them;
and he did not do it.

The Word of God

ALL: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm - Lector Jeff Akkerman

Psalm 25

Our response is: Compel me to know your ways, O Love. All: Compel me to know your ways, O Love

Compel me to know your ways, O Love
Instruct me upon your paths.
Lead me in your truth,
And teach me,
For through You will I know wholeness:
I shall reflect your Light both day and night.

Response: Compel me to know your ways, O Love

Pastor Jane

This second reading is a call to discipleship as Mary of Magdala was a disciple. The call is individual and collective. It is a call for you

You are gracious and just,
O Spirit of Truth,
Happy to guide those who miss their way;
You enjoy teaching all who are open,
All who choose to live in truth.
Response: Compel me to know your ways, O Love

Second Inspired Word proclaimed: Poem by Edwina Gately – Lector Linda Joyce

Ah, Mary of Magdala,
they did not tell us your story.
It was lost, buried deep in layers of fear and denial,
that such a one as you-- Female,
fiercely loyal friend of Jesus-- could walk so closely with the Son of God.
He looked upon you, Mary,
and saw your soul beauty starved for light and voice.
The man, Jesus, capable like a lighting rod of burning through darkness,
recognized you, Mary of Magdala,
as his own--
friend, companion, apostle.
You never left him, Mary, faithful friend, even as the authorities closed in-- Did your woman heart beat faster as the crowds grew bigger and his words spread through the land?
Did you nurture a fragile hope that the crowds would be raised up too and throw off their demons of oppression?
You knew, Mary, what that would mean,
you knew that life
would never, ever, be the same again.

Others have lived your story,
the mothers and wives, the daughters and sisters of El Salvadore and Columbia, Russia and Iraq, Sudan and Bosnia, Guatemala and South Africa, and many, many more.
How was it with you, Mary of Magdala, standing in the place of revelation,
singular woman witness of the Resurrection?
How was it to be bereft and then be thrust, still weeping,
into the Realm of God?
To run then , with that vision-- that news of life-- to those who live in fear?
We need to claim your vision breaking through dead history into our warm lives.
We need to find you, Mary of Magdala.
In the torn threads of our own journeys,
we need to weave you, Mary, sister and friend,
into our lives that we stir and rise.
Ah, Mary , brave woman of Magdala,
we too will run singing our song of resurrection with you, soul sister,
into the bright, bright sun.
Words inspired by God.
ALL: Thanks be to God..

The Word proclaimed according to the holy gospel of Mark

Mark 1. 14-20 Pastor Rosean

The Lord be with you All: And also with you
The Word proclaimed according to the holy gospel of Mark

After John’s arrest, Jesus appeared in Galilee proclaiming the Good News of God:

“This is the time of fulfillment. The reign of God is at hand! Change your hearts and minds, and believe this Good News!”

While walking by the Sea of Galilee, Jesus saw the brothers Simon and Andrew casting their nets into the sea, since they fished by trade. Jesus said to them, “Follow me, I will make you fishers of humankind.” They immediately abandoned their nets and followed Jesus.

Proceeding a little further along, Jesus saw the brothers James and John Bar-Zebedee. They too were in their boat, putting their nets in order. Immediately Jesus called them, and they left their father Zebedee standing in the boat with the hired help, and went off in the company of Jesus.

The Good News of Salvation of Jesus, our Christ.
All: Praise be to you, Jesus Christ.

Homily – Pastor Jane

Offertory Meditation

God of Love, We’ve Known Division (please join in with Bill while muted)

God of love, we’ve known division and we’ve seen its awful cost. We have struggled as a nation, and there’s much that we have lost.

We have been a house divided — and, divided, we can’t stand. May our nation be united; give us peace throughout this land.

Turn us, Lord, from what divides us — fear that drives us far apart, greed that leads to great injustice, racist ways that break your heart.

May we seek what brings together — hearts that bear each other’s pain, care and mercy toward our neighbors, love that welcomes strangers in.

May we all, in conversation, speak the truth and listen well. May we hear, across this nation, stories others have to tell. May we learn from other cultures and be blessed by their worldview; May we serve with one another — loving others, loving you.

You have challenged us to goodness; you have shown a kinder way. It’s your love that now inspires us as we seek a better day. May we end our harsh division; may we stop the hate and fear. Make us one, Lord, as a nation; may we be united here.

Preparation of our Tables

Pastor Jane

By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

Blessed are you, O Love. Through your ever expanding goodness we have these gifts of bread and wine to offer which earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for us the bread of life and our spiritual drink.

All: Blessed be God forever.

Pastor Rosean

Blessed are you, God of all creation. As we prepare our tables, here and there, we remember that it is through you that we have these gifts of our community of time, talent and treasure to offer, gratefully given, and the work of human hands. May our offerings increase our commitment as instruments of your peace. May we continue to give as we are called and able.

All: Blessed be God forever

Pastor Jane

O Love, we ask you to receive us and be pleased with the sacrifice we offer you with humble and contrite hearts.

O Love, wash away my iniquity and cleanse me from my sins.

Pray, my sisters and brothers, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, our loving, Amma/Abba.

All: May the Holy One accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of God's name, for our good and the good of all God's church

Prayer over the Gifts –

Pastor Jane

Jesus, you invite us to share this table as family. As Jesus welcomes and hears us, and fills our hearts to overflowing, may we learn from Jesus to be people of grace-filled will and action, being commissioned disciples of the Good News. Fill us with your unconditional love for all we meet and for all creation. We pray in the name of Christ Jesus.

ALL: Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer –

Pastor Jane

May Love itself be with you

Lift up your hearts

Let us give thanks and praise to God

All: And also with you

All: We lift them up to God

All: It is right to give thanks and praise

It is indeed right, for you are Creator of All that exists. All that is spectacular, all that is plain, have their origin in you all that is lovely, all who are loving, point to you for their fulfillment.

It is right to give you thanks and praise for you made us. All that is spectacular, all that is plain, have their origin in you; all that is lovely and loving look to this great mystery of God. God is unveiled in the Word Made Flesh, the Bearer of the Good News, the Bringer of the Reign of God. Praising God, we join our voices throughout eternity::

Holy, Holy, Holy (please join in with Bill while muted)

Mass of Mary Magdalene Sarah Hart

ALL: Ho -- ly, Ho -- ly, Holy Lord God of Hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest

Here too our gratitude rises, for the promise of the Holy Spirit, who even yet, even now, confronts us with your claims and attracts us to your goodness.

Merciful God, send now in kindness your Holy Spirit to settle on this bread and wine and fill them with the fullness of Jesus.

Among friends, gathered around a table,
He took bread and gave You thanks.
He broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said:

(All together on mute)

ALL: Take this all of you, and eat it:
This is my Body, which will be given up for you.

When supper was ended, he took the cup;
Again, he gave you thanks and, handing the cup to his disciples said; take this, all of you, and drink from it:

(All together on mute)

ALL: this is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of our faith:

(All together on mute)

All: Christ has died, Christ has risen, Christ will come again.

Remember, O Love, those who have died
..... and those family members and friends who have gone before us. May they share eternal love with you and all the saints. Amen.

Setting our wisdom, our wills, and our words aside, Emptying our hearts and bringing nothing in our hands, We yearn for the healing and compassionate teaching and love of Christ offers us, and the work Christ asks of us.

May your holy Spirit rest on us, in communion with Mary, the Mother of God, St. Joseph, Mary of Magdala, Teresa of Avila, Mother Teresa of Calcutta, Elizabeth Ann Seton, Dorothy Day. Convert us, O Love, from the patterns of this passing world until conform to the shape of the Beloved who as food we now share and whose Body and Blood we now become.

ALL: Through Him, with Him, and in Him,
In the unity of the holy Spirit,
All glory and honor is yours, almighty God,
For ever and ever. AMEN.

Closing Song - (please join in with Bill while muted)

Pescadores de Hombres

1. Lord, you have come to the seashore, neither searching for the rich nor the wise.
desiring only that I should follow.

Refrain

Señor, me has mirado a los ojos, sonriendo has dicho mi nombre,
en la arena he dejado mi barca,
junto a ti buscaré otro mar.

2. Lord, see my goods,

my possessions;
in my boat you find no power,
no wealth.
Will you accept, then,
my nets and labor?

3. Lord, take my hands and direct them.
Help me spend myself
in seeking the lost, returning love for the love you gave me.!
