The Southern Alleghenies: The Next Great Startup Zone

PRESENTED BY STARTUP ALLEGHENIES

Join us for a day of thought-provoking, inspiring presentations focused on entrepreneurship in the Southern Alleghenies region. Keynote speaker Chris Heivly will share his lessons on startup success. Mr. Heivly is one of the nation's leading experts in how to turn startups into multimillion-dollar companies and has been dubbed the "The Startup Whisperer." He was a co-founder of MapQuest and currently serves as one of two managing directors of The Startup Factory, the largest seed investment firm in the Southeast.

National and local experts will also explore ideas about how to turn the Southern Alleghenies into the next great startup zone during two exciting roundtable events.

Successful entrepreneurs and Entrepreneur Coaches from Startup Alleghenies will be available to answer your questions at the networking cocktail reception to close the day. If you've thought about starting a business, already own a business or just want to be a part of the movement, join us.
