RN Nurse Educator Program

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

It is widely accepted that Skilled Nursing Facilities (SNF) are leading providers of quality health care in the United States. Given this fact, dynamic and results oriented leaders are essential. Nurse Educators serve a vital role in providing continuing education of staff and staff skill competencies.

This four session program will provide the opportunity to learn new skills, fine-tune existing knowledge, explore adult learning strategies, and operationalize the skills and competencies that are needed to be an effective Nurse Educator in today's SNF setting.

This program has been approved by the NYSDOH to meet the "Train the Trainer" requirements for the Nurse Aide Training Program.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

- Examine Nurse Educator competencies and apply principles of teaching and learning, adult learning theory and critical reflection of teaching / learning environments
- Utilize theoretical frameworks and research literature to support techniques of learning outcomes that encompass instructional designs and plans for evaluation
- Explore online learning communities through web-enhanced instruction
- Critically examine personal situations of teaching / learning for adult learners
- Access the role of the Nurse Educator in long-term care

PROGRAM INSTRUCTOR:

TARRAH A. QUINLAN, RN, BSN

Tarrah is a RN with over 20 years' experience in multiple health care settings, specializing in long-term care.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS:

Registrants MUST be a New York State Registered Nurse. This course is four sessions. Participants are required to attend all four sessions.

Participants will be required to develop a curriculum for a training session and present their training program on the final session. This is required to pass the program.

SPACE IS LIMITED!
