

Continuing Connections: Collaborative Project Prompt

Prompt:

What social issue are your partner and you interested in learning more about?

Construct a project that integrates careful research on your social issue with a lesson or topic from your respective studies in theology/religion class this semester.

Some Important Notes and Parameters

- Partners must submit a brief project proposal form (on the following page) and be granted approval from their assigned teacher (either Mr. Fiorella or Herr Meyer) before beginning research.
- Research must be organized into a bibliography with two to three sentence annotations featuring academically appropriate articles and other sources.
 - (Bibliographies must be completed, submitted and approved by your assigned teacher before constructing the project).
- The medium and how you choose to construct this project is up to your partner and you.
 - Powerpoint, Google Slides, and Google Docs are outlawed.
- Your projects will be peer-evaluated using the master rubric. Be prepared to have your project featured on our class's blog.

Continuing Connections: Collaborative Project

Proposal Form

Names: _____ & _____

Social Issue: _____

Critical Question Guiding Your Research: _____
