Theme Description: Unbound

Unbound invites artists to wander without limits. To be unbound is to be unfettered: free of the constraints of convention, expectation and the familiar. It is the moment an idea slips its tether and moves into territory yet unexplored.

"We are what becomes a daring idea. The willingness to move beyond the boundaries of what Exists. Into the mystery of the unknown. Not because it is safe or easy, But because we are curious and brave". (The 4th stanza in Vera Gate's poem titled, Unbound)

The exhibition follows the imagination wherever it goes. It may arrive as a new medium, an unexpected method, or a question finally asked. It may be the setting aside of a habit of style or subject that has quietly held your work in place. Whether your work breaks a boundary or dissolves one, freedom lies in seeking new expressions once ideas are Unbound.

Media:

2D and 3D works in all media are accepted.

Size:

There are no size restrictions.

Quantity:

Members may submit up to 2 pieces. Every participating artist will have a minimum of one piece selected.

Submission Fee:

A $25 fee is required for participation.

Presentation Requirements:

Important: All artwork must be professionally framed with wire hangers and ready for display.

- Thin canvases, prints, photographs, and collages must be framed.
- Larger gallery-wrapped canvases can be presented by painting the edges, but they must be professionally finished with a solid color or the design wrapped around the edge.
- Non-compliant work will be returned to the artist.

Sale of Work:

All work must be for sale and priced to reflect the current Tucson art market.

- Sales will be handled by Steinfeld Gallery staff during the First Saturday ArtWalk and every Saturday thereafter during regular gallery hours. Steinfeld Gallery takes a 20% commission on sales.
