

A Call to Paperworks Artists:

Paperworks Members Exhibit at the Jewish Community Center

Title of the Exhibit: Renewal

Dates: October 23-November 30, 2025

Artist Reception: Sunday, November 2, 2:00-3:30PM

Location: Jewish Community Center
3800 E. River Road

JCC Hours to Visit Show:

7AM -9PM – Monday – Thursday

7AM - 6PM – Friday

8AM -6:00PM – Saturday and Sunday

Art Delivery to the JCC: Wednesday, October 22, 2025 from 9 -10AM (Use main entrance or entrance on the west side for large items).

Pickup Artwork: December 1,2025

Description of Theme: Renewal, an instance of resuming an activity or state after an interruption: the act of making something continue, start again, or improve. The Renewal (of something) in a situation in which something begins again after it was interrupted; a Renewal of interest in something . Artists are challenged to examine their own body of work and search for innovative techniques that will advance their work and/or to begin again or continue a process.

Media: 2D and 3D works in all media excepted. The JCC has 16 pedestals and a glass display case with a lock.

Sizes: Minimum size 12” x12” (including frame) There is no maximum size.

Quantities: Members may submit up to 3 images.

Fee: A $25 fee is required with submission.

Presentation Requirements: Important! To be accepted for display, all work must be professionally framed with wire hangers and be ready for display. Thin canvases, prints, photographs and collages etc. must be framed. Larger gallery wrapped canvases may be finished by painting the edges, BUT they must be presented professionally with a solid color or with the design wrapped around the edge. Canvases that are not properly presented will be returned to the artist.

Sale of Work: Work must be for sale and priced to reflect the current Tucson art market. Sales will be handled by the front desk staff. Sales are processed bi-weekly. The JCC takes a 35% commission. Artists will be required to complete some paperwork provided by the JCC, for any sale transactions. More instructions will follow.

Participation: If you wish to submit work for the show, please send an email to steviemack83@gmail.com with the subject line of Paperworks JCC Exhibit by July 15, 2025.

Digital images of the work must be submitted to steviemack83@gmail.com for consideration by September 1. Artists will be notified of acceptance by September 20, 2025.

Artist Presentations/Demonstrations: Artists are invited to present/demonstrate their techniques and processes at the JCC on November 9 ,23 and 30, 2025. This gives members the opportunity to share their work with visitors and encourage sales. More details are forthcoming.

Questions: Contact Stevie with questions at steviemack83@gmail.com