PW Spring Field Trip
The Land with No Name Sanctuary, southwest of Tucson
Website: www.thelandwithnoname.org

The Land with No Name Sanctuary (TLWNN) is a non-profit dedicated to the arts. What started as an outdoor sculpture park has grown into a multi-functional, multi-media space that holds workshops, hosts artists in residence, provides a place for retreats and sculpture tours. Their mission: To gather land, art, and people together to create unbound experiences, engaging those who make and those who appreciate."
