PRELUDE: Chorale Prelude on “O Sacred Head, Now Wounded”
John Finney, organ

F. W. Zachau

PRAYER OF INVOCATION and CONFESSION

Today we come to remember Jesus Christ,
who lived into love and healing and hope,
yet was feared, plotted against, betrayed, and suffered death on the cross.

Blessed be our God, forever and ever. Amen.

Let us pray:

Almighty God,
we ask you to look with mercy on your human family.
Deliver us from every evil, past and present.
Forgive our spirals of selfishness and fear. Help us not to hate.
Strengthen us to live into discipleship,
following Jesus, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SILENT PRAYER

PASTORAL PRAYER

OUR LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever. Amen.

 LM

Lowell Mason, great American Congregational singing school master and tunebook editor, adapted this tune from a plainsong chant for use with the masterful words by the English Congregationalist Isaac Watts.

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life?

— Mark 8:34-36, NRSV
