Candidates for Diocesan Assembly

Sue McIlrath

Sue McIlrath is a retired nurse with over fifty years of nursing experience with a MBA in Health Administration. She is a cradle Episcopalian and has served two terms on Grace Episcopal Church Vestry. She is the director of the Crisis Consortium who deal with Behavioral Health in emergency settings. Sue is a Guardian ad Litem, Member of the Order of Eastern Star, Past President of St. Monica Chapter The Order of the Daughters of the King, Port Orange. In her spare time she is a Wife, Mother of three and Grandmother of four.

Sue was called to The Order of the Daughters of the King eleven years ago (December 2015) to serve her clergy and parish. Being able to be there for her priest and parishioners in their time of need is what brought her to the Order and continuing to pray and serve others helps her to appreciate all the Blessings that she has.

Sue has served two terms on the Order's National Council and is the chair for International Daughters with 22 countries and over 8,000 members.

When the calling came out for a Diocesan Treasurer, sue lifted it up to God and had a very intimate discussion with him about taking that position. It is with that direction that sue is requesting to serve the Diocese as Treasurer for a third term.
