Mid Autumn Festival

Festival

Mission College's International Student Center in collaboration with the Associated Student Government extends a warm invitation to the Mid Autumn Festival extravaganza!

Experience the vibrant celebrations of this unique festival across China, South Korea, Taiwan, and Vietnam. In China, it's called Zhong Qiu Jie. In South Korea, it's known as Chu-seok, akin to Thanksgiving. Taiwan celebrates it as the Moon Festival, while Vietnam embraces Tet Trung Thu.

We cordially invite you to be part of this cultural celebration, where you'll immerse yourself in the rich traditions, tantalizing food, and delightful traditional games that define this cherished holiday. Don't miss out on this exciting journey through diverse cultures and flavors! 🌍🍽️🎉
