

Apply TODAY!
New Fellowship Opportunity for Underrepresented Minority
Teachers of Physics

Become a Master Teacher Instructional Fellow - Underrepresented
Teachers of Physics

UToP, a joint project from the American Institute of Physics and the American Association of Physics Teachers is looking for participants and mentors.

Eligible participants/mentors should be Black, African American, African, Black LatinX, Black Caribbean, and those who identify within the African Diaspora and are either a current, recent, or pre-service physics Teacher

Benefits of Fellowship

- Personalized one-on-one mentoring and membership in a larger community
- Full Travel Stipend to AAPT Summer Meetings
- Opportunities to network with other Underrepresented Physics Educators
- Graduate Course Credit

Click here to apply: http://bit.ly/AAPT_UToPApp

Questions: email K12programs@aapt.org

New Fellowship Opportunity

Fall 2022

AAPT & AIP are seeking mentor and mentee applicants for a new fellowship

Master Teacher Instructional Fellows: Underrepresented Teachers of Physics (UToP)

Eligible applicants should be Black, African American, African, Black Latinx, Black Caribbean, and those who identify within the African Diaspora and are either a current or recent high school physics teacher.

Fellowship benefits include:

- Personalized mentoring
- Travel stipend for AAPT Summer Meeting
- Opportunities to network with other Underrepresented Physics Educators
- Graduate Course Credit

Visit www.aapt.org/k12 for updates and application.

The American Institute of Physics is a federation of physical societies, including the American Association of Physics Teachers (AAPT). The AAPT is a professional membership association of scientists dedicated to enhancing the understanding and appreciation of physics through teaching. One Physics Ellipse College Park, MD 20740 | 301-209-3311 | aapt.org

