

Spirit Woven, Life Connected

The Spirit of God is at work in every aspect of reality. Seen and unseen, obvious and subtle, dynamic and ever so nuanced, the Spirit continues to weave the fabric of the Great Plan. It is the fabric of creation that connects each bit of reality with everything else.

We come to recognize the ties that bond us with God, with one another, with the forces and energies of creation, and with our own consciousness. In the spiritual journey, each of us comes to see that we are a limited but vital part of the whole.

Everything is connected.

This retreat seeks to build our awareness of this, in order to more clearly see God's presence in all things, and the role that we are invited to play in creation's unfoldment.
