

PCS and "Partners in Caring"

A great benefit for PCS members

Jill Schreibman, a social worker from Westchester Jewish Community Services (WJCS) has recently been assigned as PCS' new Partners in Caring contact. Through Jill, PCS members will have the opportunity to address issues and concerns in a safe, comfortable and familiar environment. Our social worker can facilitate group sessions right here at PCS on topics including caregiving and bereavement, the "sandwich" generation, preparing for the college environment, bullying and cyber etiquette, concerns of young families, separation and divorce, and programs for seniors. She can also serve as a valuable resource to our Hebrew School parents, teachers, and students.

Free of charge, individual PCS members can schedule up to three private sessions with Jill. She can meet with you in a variety of locations. If further service is required, a referral will be offered. Jill can be contacted at WJCS at 914-761-0600, ext. 2170 or at jschreibman@wjcs.com. All meetings are kept strictly confidential.

In addition to this great benefit, if you need a friendly visit, rides, meals or similar support, as always please do not hesitate to be in touch with Rabbi Julie at PCS or e-mail PCS' Caring Committee chairperson Susan Friedman at afried0925@aol.com or call her at 917-846-3038.
