Whether you have symptoms or not…

You are eligible for COVID-19 testing.

Free of charge, and available via appointment easily booked online.

Visit www.ahs.ca/covid today, to do your online assessment and book in for testing.

Testing is an important part of the effort to contain COVID-19 in Alberta, and will provide a clearer picture of how well public health measures are working to contain COVID-19. This information is important to help guide further progress in Alberta's relaunch.
