

STEM

science • technology • engineering • math

African American Technologists Building a Better World

Saturday, June 10, 3:00 PM

Community Room

From our local STEM workforce, four African American technologists will share how African American engineers and scientists have made, and still make, a better world for us all. A Q&A session will follow.

Speakers:

Lawrence King, Mechanical Engineer, VP DEBLAR & Assoc.
Justin Latimore, Software Developer, Cox Communication
Timothy Wright, Electrical Engineer, KForce Gov't. Solutions
Maurice Trentel, ESP Manager, City of Atlanta

No registration required. Ages 12 and up.

Cobb County Public Library System
www.cobbcat.org

South Cobb Regional Library

805 Clay Road
Mableton, Georgia 30126 | (678) 398-5828
<http://www.cobbcat.org>