Reflection from Rev. Cathy

This month we will focus on resilience, what is it and how can we practice more resilience in our lives? Rev. Scott Taylor explains his understanding of resilience as, "Ultimately, resilience is learning from your past rather than resenting it." I like this explanation, but I would add that there is also something more immediate to resilience. For me, it meant moving forward when I didn't know where I was going or if I would make it. It meant trusting in something that I couldn't understand or even articulate, as the Nicaraguan's say, "You you're your way by walking."

This month's small group packet will be sent to all members and friends of UUCGT. You are invited to explore the resources provided to learn about how resilience has shaped your life and learn how to call it forth when things get challenging. The resources in the Soul Matters Small Group packets include quotes, readings, book recommendations, articles, videos, movies, and spiritual exercises. For example, the first exercise is called, List 'Em and Share 'Em. Make your list, reflect on it, and then share it with someone close to you to get their insights. Are these true? What am I missing? Perhaps you might pick up a journal to record your monthly experience with the exercises. Here's a preview:

Carve out some time to make a list of your TOP FIVE resiliency practices and habits. For instance, here some from the lists of our Soul Matters facilitators:

- Getting eight hours of sleep
- Meditating 3 mornings a week
- Starting family dinners with a gratitude prayer
- Watching The Daily Show
- Getting daily exercise
- Make sure there is a veggie on every plate I eat (And make sure my hands stay out of potato chip bags!)
- Spending time with animals
- Make my bed
- Creating external order – organizing the junk draw, cleaning the fridge, redesigning the workbench in the garage
- Participating in on-line Sabbath program

After you list your top 5, think about them more deeply using these questions:

- Which resiliency practice/habit is "saving" you right now?
- Which one have you let slide and need to start doing more of again?
- Which one was given to you by someone else?
- Which one did you discover on your own?
- Which do you need to pass on to someone in your life?

I hope this preview of the Soul Matters Monthly Journal has sparked your interest!

There are four exercise options for each month's theme, and you choose the one that most appeals to you or do them all! If you are interested in joining a small group to travel this inspirational journey with others watch for details about small groups coming in the near future.

See you in church!

Starting Point: An Introduction to the Unitarian Universalist Journey

This four-part program is designed for newcomers, but Starting Point has a lot to offer long-time members as well. If you have never participated in a small group, this is the perfect opportunity. Or, maybe you are a longtime member looking to fall in love with UUCGT and Unitarian Universalism all over again. Well then, consider Starting Point your spiritual "re-starting point"!

Rev. Cathy will lead the sessions which are scheduled after the Sunday Service from 11:45-1:00 pm in the sanctuary. Mark your calendar for the following dates:

January 26, February 2, February 16 & February 23

A sign-up sheet is located on the Welcome Table

Soul Matters Small Groups begin in March

Sign-up sheets will be located on the Welcome Table.

For more information about Soul Matters Small Groups, contact Rev. Cathy at revharrington@mac.com or 231-301-3177

Pat Light, Nan Worthington and Mike McDonald visited Rabbi Chava and presented her with a wall hanging made by the Peacemakers Needleworkers to recognize her four years of Ministry with UUCGT. Pat also gave Rabbi Chava a number of cards signed by many members and friends of the Congregation. Rabbi Chava was very appreciative and warmly thanks everyone.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14!

* Valentine's Day Dance!

Come learn some easy and fun international Folk Dances!

Each dance is taught, and once the short sequence of steps is learned, the sequence is repeated, and you get to experience of joy of moving with others in a circle or line. We'll do dances from Romania, Serbia, Croatia, Israel, Germany, Macedonia, and more! All ages are welcome, and children 6 and up can easily learn these dances. Comfortable shoes are recommended. We'll dance from 7 - 9 PM. Call Mary Van Valin at 231-342-1605 if you have questions.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The Leadership Development Committee (LDC) is in the process of building a candidate list for elected positions for UUCGT. If you know of a member who would be a good candidate for the Board of Trustees, the LDC, or the Endowment Committee, your input is encouraged and welcomed.

We are looking for members who:

- Are comfortable with diverse ideas, are welcoming to contrary points of view, and who have the ability to compromise
- Care deeply about UUCGT
- Are aware of and honor UUCGT history
- Have experience with at least one UUCGT committee
- Have demonstrated organizational skills
- Have evidenced a commitment to attend meetings and participate wholeheartedly in the work of the Board or Committees

During this time of the year, the LDC is preparing a list of potential nominees, discussing with interested candidates the requirements of the position, and assessing the leadership needs of the congregation. We nominate one person for each position that will be open for a congregational vote at the June annual meeting. The final slate of candidates is announced to the congregation on the three Sundays prior to the annual meeting.

If you know of a member who would be a good candidate, or to volunteer yourself, you may contact any one the LDC members listed below:

Lauren Keinath, Chair Mary Grover Judith Halsted Sandra McDonald Joy Platteborze William Scharf

Endowment Fund Good News

At its January 15 meeting, the Endowment Committee voted to distribute income from dividends of $2100.00 to UUCGT. These funds will be distributed equally for:

a) outreach into the community; b) for the wider mission of UUism; and c) for the physical plant. For the 2019 calendar year the Vanguard Endowment Fund portfolio increased over $42,000 to $120,467 for the following reasons:

- Increased contributions to the Fund of over $17,000 with a generous memorial gift, an insurance policy, and many, many gifts of memorial donations from UUCGT members
- Increase dividends of over $2,400 from Vanguard
- Growth in the stock market

We, on the Endowment Committee, are heartened by the Fund growth and thank members for their gifts. We remind you that bequests, gifts from IRA funds, as well as memorials, will assure the financial stability of UUCGT in the years to come.

Stewardship Committee

This is a logo you'll be seeing plenty of this month. It was chosen by your 2020-21 Stewardship Committee to represent the idea that when we, as a congregation, join hands and hearts, we can reach any goal we set our minds to. Recent progress in several areas – Religious Education (RE), Music Program, the work with our Interim Minister, Rev. Cathy, to name a few – is proof of the concept.

Our financial goal of $275,000 is attainable and is especially important for us to reach considering where we are now and where we need to be in the near future...a future that includes a successful search for a settled minister, expanded music and RE programs for all of us and “for the children of our children”. We even dare to envision a future in which we pay to have our driveway, sidewalks and parking lot plowed and roof leaks fixed without relying on overextended volunteers!

The Pledge Drive Kickoff, February 9, begins the Circle. Thank you to all who have pledged and to those who soon will. With everyone's help we will MAKE THE CIRCLE WHOLE!

Your Stewardship Committee: Jan Zerbel, Rick Walter, Dave Halsted, Karl Keinath, Penny Ort, John Hoffmann, Rev. Cathy

PROGRAM COUNCIL

Program Council met on January 12 with 10 members present as others involved with VE were not able to attend.

Several successful special events were reported on and discussed. Over 120 adults and children attended the Thanksgiving Feast at Twin Lakes Gilbert Lodge on November 24 and left full of joy and food. The Winter Solstice celebration December 21 was attended by over 60 individuals and families including a lot of new people.

The Christmas Eve candlelight service and reception December 24 were also well attended. Donations of over $1000 were received for the special Social Justice charity needs. Committees reported their activities are moving forward, however many (such as Congregational Care) are in need of new leadership volunteers.

The Stewardship Team will host a luncheon on February 9 for kicking-off the 2020-2021 Pledge campaign. With the added expenses of our expanded RE and VE programs as well as searching for and calling a settled minister, the expected budget will be $275,000 and will require pledge or other income to increase by 20%. Please plan to give generously when you fill out your pledge forms.

Music Corner

Musicians and musical ideas are always welcome! We are all meant to share and express ourselves through music one way or another, it is part of the experience of being alive. If you play an instrument, have always wanted to sing, by yourself or with others, or have a deep love of music with ideas for songs, arrangements, or collaborations that we could explore, I am open and excited to chat with you. For those who love to sing, the Vocal Ensemble is always open to new members. All levels of singers are welcome. We are currently working on some beautiful pieces for International Women's Day and Social Justice. We meet every Thursday at 7:00pm in the sanctuary.

Wednesday, February 5 Eating For Optimal Human and Environmental Health with Chef Logan Call

Each day we are faced with more information about the desperate state of our environment and climate. Each day we are faced with more information--often contradicting from previous information--about human health and what is "healthy" for us. This has led to many of us feeling a deep sense of overwhelm, confusion and frustration. As someone who is deeply passionate about both issues, Chef Logan knows this feeling and has dedicated his work to filtering out the confusion, the nonsense and finding the light in the increasing darkness we may see and feel.

And---for our potluck---we will have an especially fun, plant-based dish contest. (We'll also have food that is Not plant based.) Chef Logan will be our contest judge--and there will be prizes!!!! UUCGT cooks are welcome and invited to come and show us what you've got!!!

Wednesday, February 19

Our own Val Gerhart will discuss personality theory as it relates to our ability to communicate with each other.

Wednesday, March 4

The Dr. Reverend Cathy Harrington will talk to us about whatever it is we need to hear. And that's all we're saying because our current program director is not always keen on the "blurb", and is enamored of the untrammelled pulpit.

Wednesday, March 18

Our own Carla Gipson, international educator, fairly new to our group will probably be joined by her daughter, Marya. They will discuss their experiences living and teaching abroad in these times.

Wednesday, April 1

Marcelo Betti, of Justice for Our Neighbors will discuss the immigration situation and what we can do to help.

Social Justice

Go to The Old Town Playhouse to see the play Indecent & to the State Theatre to see Just Mercy

I hope that many of you have the opportunity to attend two exciting and important events. The Old Town Playhouse is staging the play, Indecent, and the State Theatre is showing Just Mercy.

Just Mercy is set in Alabama where systemic racism is entrenched. A known innocent man spends years on death row because the white judicial system must have someone to blame for a white person's death. Unfortunately, it is a very true story. The author of the book is a young African –American attorney insistent on exposing the truth and following it through to justice. This book and movie is moving, pertinent and horribly true! Wednesday evening February 5, the Human Rights Commission is sponsoring it at the State Theatre, and the ACLU will have a display table. Hope you can see it.

On other pertinent issues for today, Indecent, by Paula Vogel, cannot easily be summarized. The play is two plays, one inside the other. The famous Jewish playwright Sholem Asch, wrote God of Vengeance about a Jewish brothel. The father in the play runs a brothel, and he and his wife have a lovely daughter. They plan a wedding to a Rabbi for the daughter, but she falls in love with one of the prostitutes and resists marriage. The play we see is about the actors in that play, first in their native Poland, then throughout Europe, and eventually in America. The play written in 1907 had one impact, but what is the impact in post Holocaust America and translated into English from the original Yiddish?

In Europe the God of Vengeance makes tours over the years as the Yiddish play is accepted and lauded. The version is unchanged and the dancing and singing wildly acclaimed. We see visions of this as the play spans the years in "blinks." The play itself is fractured, showing it moving from town to town, just as in Jewish history, Jews have lived a fractured life, always having to move from place to place. With the pressure from Pogroms, the writer and players move to America. They wait in long lines at Immigration. They are looking for freedom, acceptance.

Once in America, the play is enacted in New York and continues in Yiddish. There is pressure as the players adjust to America to produce it in English. It gets translated, and then there is pressure to revise it. The lesbian love scenes get removed, but under duress and ambivalent reactions. The writer does not read it. He does not read English.

But does changing the play make it acceptable? As in today's world, is homosexuality acceptable? Removing a part, hiding the truth, does that make it acceptable? Can changing reality, pretending, make it, oneself, acceptable? What does it do to the self, perception of oneself as an actor or a person? And is true love through homosexual expression acceptable?

Does its flamboyant celebration of the Jewish life make it acceptable? It is a flagrant expression of true love, albeit between two women, and love of life - is that acceptable? The music and dance throughout the play is symbolic of the desire to enjoy and celebrate life. Can that expression of Jewish life be acceptable?

The players get arrested for indecent expression and put in jail. The writer is despondent. They are eventually freed and decide to return "home." Again there are long lines for immigration. Once away and back in Europe, they all put on their yellow stars of David as Nazism prevails. Where is free expression? They thought in America, but it was not here. In Europe? It is not there either. Where?

Our Religious Education Program

We had a wonderful January in RE

We welcomed the new year with a Fire Communion ritual, a UU tradition for a fresh start. We learned about concepts of God/higher power and prayer in a variety of religions, and created our own board games out of cardboard. After some confusion about attendance, we held a smaller-than-planned Cardboard Play Day on January 12. It was a lot of fun and we hope to do a second round in the springtime.

We are very excited about the

Sunday, February 16, 2020 - Multi-Generational Service

which will be on the theme of Acts of Love.

Children are invited to be a part of the service and a variety of roles are available, including giving a reading, performing a piece of music, passing the offertory baskets, and reading a story. Please contact Betsy if you are interested in being part of this celebration of the impact we can have on the world when we act with love.

THE GREAT
ARE DONE BY THOSE WHO ARE
OF KINDNESS.

On February 2 we will have an RE Day of Service. We will spread love in our community by baking banana bread for Safe Harbor and making Valentine cards for residents of a local nursing home.

Valentine card materials will be available in the social hall during the coffee hour! All are invited to stop by and create a card to brighten someone's day!

We are looking forward to a fun and meaningful month and we hope to see you at the card making table on February 2!

The Transition Team wants to thank all who participated in the Search Process Information session on January 19th. Below is a link to the slide presentation and collated responses to the questions:

What do you bring to UUCGT? What do you receive from UUCGT? What are the good qualities needed by someone to serve on the Search Committee?

If you have questions, please don't hesitate to ask a member of the Transition Team.

Board Report

UU Board Meeting Summary for January

The UUCGT Board of Trustees met on Wednesday, January 15. Following are key items from the meeting:

- We formed a Task Force to review our rental policies and make recommendations for changes on those policies. Mary Anne Rivers, Karl Keinath, Susan Sherman and Price Watts will make up the task force.

- We had an extensive discussion on our method of Governance and how our policies say one thing and our practice is different. Tom Darnton will draft a proposed wording change for our policies regarding governance for further discussion. We feel that we need to work through this issue so that Settled Minister Candidates will understand how we operate.

- We voted in favor of developing a proposed By-law change to change terminology from “senior spiritual leader” back to “Minister”.

- Passed a motion to incorporate the “Benzie Satellite Congregation Operating Policies” into our Policy Manual. Judy Myers is acting as our liaison with the Benzie Satellite Congregation.

- Jolynn Paige has been contracted to update our webpage. We will be using a UUA template and Rev. Cathy will be providing input.

- Rev. Cathy reported on a number of upcoming activities including the session on Sunday, January 19 to introduce the Ministerial Search Process, the kickoff of the 2020-2021 Pledge Campaign on February 9 and the start of small groups in early March.

- The Board agreed on a process for developing the six month appraisal required during the Interim Process.

- In closed session the Board voted unanimously and enthusiastically to extend Rev. Cathy’s contract through August 2021. Please note that this is a required step for Congregations served by an Interim Minister.

We plan to share highlights from our monthly Board meetings throughout the year. You can also find the minutes of Board meetings on our website. Our Board meetings are open meetings and you are welcome to attend. Our next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, February 19 at 7:00 pm in the Sanctuary.
