APRIL
Sunday Services
Renewal and Resurrection

Sunday, April 2 - Rabbi Chava Bahle
10:30 AM Service: "Building Us Up"

"Since ancient times, shaman, priests, and elders blessed sacred spaces as well as the communities that gathered in them. And so we too gather to bless this space and to bless those who will use it now and in the years to come." - Sandra Fees
Join us for the rededication of our space as a place of renewal and rebirth.

Sunday, April 9 - Rabbi Chava Bahle and Sarah Montgomery-Richards
10:30 AM Service: "Passover: Passing from One Place to Another"

"For holy days on which we recall the old stories, we light the flame. For Passover which reminds us of the courage and strength of those seeking freedom in the past, we light the flame. For gathering today in this sacred space, we light the flame. For the opportunity to be together as a community, to remember the past, to plan for our future, to be alive in our present."
- Dillan Sorrells

Join us as we light the flame of Passover! On this day we will honor Sarah Montgomery-Richards' graduation from Claremont Lincoln University with her Master of Arts degree. Sarah will give our teaching, Rabbi Chava will offer a reflection.

Sunday, April 16 - Rabbi Chava Bahle
10:30 AM Service: "Easter Morning ~ All Congregation Service"

"Dear God: Good Friday is gone - a dark day on the calendar, a time of suffering - with more losses than gains, and more pain than we thought we could bear. We are tired of crying, we are tired of burying, we are tired of mourning. But Easter is here - and we who survived are prepared for the turning of the year - not to escape the past, but to provide a witness for a brighter future. We are ready for joy, we are ready for love, we are ready for new beginnings. Amen!" - Rev. David O. Rankin

Sunday, April 23 - Rabbi Chava Bahle
10:30 AM Service: "Lilal ahl-Miraj / The Night Journey"

Join us for a special journey of personal stories honoring the anniversary of a sacred night in Islam: the night journey. The Qur'an says:

In the name of Allah, the beneficent, the merciful. Praise be to the Lord of the Universe who has created us and made us into tribes and nations, that we may know each other, not that we may despise each other. If the enemy incline towards peace, do thou also incline towards peace, and trust in God, for the Lord is the one that heareth and knoweth all things. And the servants of God, Most Gracious are those who walk on the Earth in humility, and when we address them, we say "PEACE."

Based on the Koran, 49:13, 8:61

Sunday, April 30 - Sarah Montgomery-Richards, Director of Lifespan Experience
10:30 AM Service: "Seasons of Love"

"Five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes
Five hundred twenty-five thousand moments so dear
Five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes
How do you measure, measure a year?
In daylights, in sunsets
In midnights, in cups of coffee
In inches, in miles
In laughter, in strife
In five hundred twenty-five thousand six hundred minutes
How do you measure a year in the life?"

– Seasons of Love from the musical, RENT

Join us as we conclude our month of considering themes of renewal and look to this season of love as a time to remember that life is not an exercise, but rather a joyful dance, rich in all the beauty it can afford. This service will be preceded by our annual May Day Celebration (weather permitting) in which we will ceremonially remove last year's ribbons from the May Pole (lamppost near the rear entrance of the building), and wind new ribbons as part of this year's dance. The ancient observance of Beltane provides the roots of modern May Day celebrations, a time in which love and joy were honored. Please gather at 9:45am on this day if you are interested in participating in our May Day/May Pole Celebration.

MAY
Sunday Services
Reconciliation, Forgiveness and Healing

Sunday, May 7 - Lay-Led Service
10:30 AM Service: TBD

Sunday, May 14 - Rabbi Chava Bahle
10:30 AM Service: "Forgiveness Part 1: The Science of Forgiveness"

In 1997, the Campaign for Forgiveness Research, a funding initiative, was launched for scientists in multiple disciplines who were interested in taking forgiveness out of the purview of religion and using rigorous scientific protocol to determine its effects on the body and mind. The results have enriched our understanding of forgiveness, demonstrating that what was traditionally seen as a religious ideal is actually an important skill for anyone, whether atheist, agnostic, or believer, who seeks to live a healthy, happy life." - from Salon <http://bit.ly/1FIndPA>

Sunday, May 21 - Rabbi Chava Bahle
10:30 AM Service: "Forgiveness Part 2: How Do We Forgive?"

Dr. Robert Enright, a developmental psychologist at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, shaped a 4 part process for forgiveness: "uncovering anger; deciding to forgive; working on forgiveness; and discovery and release from emotional prison." How does this relate to our UU principles and how does it work in community?

Sunday, May 28 - Lay-Led Service
10:30 AM Service: TBD

Rabbi's Reflection

Artist Judy Chicago's beloved poem "And Then" reminds us that for things to move toward our highest visions for ourselves, each other, the congregation, the world, we must be prepared for change. "And Then" implies a future, a time that will be different in some ways than today.

I'd like to offer this reflection using her beautiful words.

And then all that has divided us will merge

Now is a time when people of good will need to step beyond petty divisions and divisiveness to join in acting our values. We, each and every one of us, as UUs need to be exemplars for not just entering into dialogue but committing to a way of being in dialogue with each other and with those whose points of view differ from our own. Let us seek the good in each other.

And then compassion will be wedded to power

Take a good look around our congregation at leaders of committees and programs. What you will see are people who are devoting a great deal of heart and time ("time and talent") to leading our congregation in care, outreach, keeping our space safe and beautiful, social justice, learning, artistic expression, worship and many other areas. I would like to also mention here our board and governance committees, who often go overlooked when things are going well. Leadership does involve the careful use of the power bestowed on us by our members. Please remember, even when we disagree, that we are all doing the very best we can; our UUCGT leaders are compassionate beings who deserve our compassion in return.

And then softness will come to a world that is harsh and unkind

Let us commit to soften in the face of harshness and unkindness. Yes we must fight against injustice, but there is nothing less effective or less appealing than an angry peacemaker. We must, as Gandhi said, be the change we wish to see. If we want a world that moves away from harshness and unkindness, we ourselves must set aside these ways of being and evince a kindly disposition.

So friends, for now, let us commit to working on being our best selves with each other here at UUCGT and in the outside activities we do representing the congregation. It must begin with us if we are to change the community, the country and the human family.

NEW MOON WOMEN'S GROUP with Carolyn Kelly & Rabbi Chava Bahle

New Moon Soul to Soul Group (meets monthly)
Next Meeting: April 22, 3:00 - 5:00 PM in the Sanctuary

"A New Moon marks the beginning of a new cycle, a fresh start in its cycle of waxing and waning. During this time the Moon is empty and receptive and full of potential. This is an optimum time to plant seeds of intentions for what you wish to manifest in your life.

Most of us live our lives so disconnected from the Earth, and devoid of any kind of ritual that creates the space for us to connect. So the New Moon provides us with an opportunity to take the time to create SACRED SPACE for ourselves. It is essential.

There is something so powerful when women come together to support each other on their journey, in their hopes and dreams. We are healed, we are nurtured, we feel comforted and understood. Moreover, when you share sacred space together you magnify the power of your intentions and you energetically create a web of support for not only your circle of women friends, but with women everywhere." (MysticMama)

Join us! We are using the book Soul to Soul: Fourteen Gatherings for Reflection and Sharing as our guide. You can read more here <http://www.uuabookstore.org/Soul-to-Soul-P17830.aspx>
The book is available for purchase in the UU office ($13).

The Holocaust

Holocaust Remembrance Day is an annual event, where many of us remember and reflect on the horrors that the Nazis inflicted on over 6 million Jews, and also on many other peoples, too. It is a time that we remember and vow never to forget, and hopefully never allow it to be repeated. Unfortunately, there have been many horrors since then where one people has inflicted severe destructive genocide on another group. The list is long, but we still vow to try to halt this murderous trend.

On Sunday, April 23 at 7 PM, at Central United Methodist Church, we will be holding a Holocaust Memorial Service.

Light refreshments after the service will encourage you to linger and mingle. Please plan to attend.

The 2017 Gamble Awards

The first Gamble Award - Anne Hughes presented by Karl Love

Twenty-four years ago, our congregation sought to recognize those who define our congregation through their service. The first honorees were Jim and Ruth Gamble, awarded during the dedication of our building. Each year since, we have recognized one or two people who serve in many capacities, some highly visible and others largely unseen. We honor people who have been there, again and again, as needed, just as their namesakes long ago.

Awardees receive a pin in the shape of a key to honor Jim & Ruth's long tenure as "turnkeys" at our previous home at 5th & Oak. They would arrive early each Sunday to unlock the building, make coffee and warm up the building before services, often when someone else had signed up to do it.

What of this process of recognition? Implied in the word "recognition" is the seeing someone for who they really are. The poet Robert Bly once spoke of blessings in the sense of an approval rather than a gift from "on high". Bly describes the young seeking the blessing, typically from a family elder. The shape of the blessing being approval, for a marriage or a setting out to "seek one's fortune". Bly describes this kind of blessing as a "seeing" of a person for who they really are. The implication is that the person is seen and who they are or have become is a matter of awe.

Today we recognize and receive the blessing of the presence of those awarded within our congregation. The choosing of the honorees is daunting because the amazing and deserving surround us. We sought the exceptional, those who profoundly affected our community and our larger community. We recognize those who often represent us in the larger sphere. It is our honor to award such as these.

Our first recipient is Anne Hughes:

Our first recipient has been a member of our congregation for over twenty-one years. Once I announce her name, I think most will think she MUST have already received the Gamble Award, but she has not.

Our honoree has served as a member of Sunday Services for many, many years. She has coordinated fine services and presented memorable services. She has served on the Committee on Ministry. She served on our Minister Search Committee. She has served on the Board as a trustee and as President. She was integral in the development of our mission and vision statement.

In all of this service and more in the greater community as well, she always serves with wisdom, compassion and insight. It is my honor to announce our first 2017 winner, Anne Hughes.

The second Gamble Award - Jane Watts presented by Kay Sturgeon

I was asked one day outside the sanctuary, "What does the pin mean on your name tag?" Boy, did I have to think fast, for how could I explain the Gamble Award? My quick answer, "Oh, that's what you get when you raise your hand all the time." But as you just heard from Karl, the Gamble Award is far more than just raising your hand.

Our second recipient has served UUCGT diligently and consistently for over 3 decades. But, her contributions do not end there. Her volunteerism reaches far out into our community much like the ripples of a stone dropped into our bay. She is steeped in community endeavors, works for our environment, gives endlessly to family, friends, pets and sometimes even wildlife.

She has served our congregation on numerous committees. To name a few: Membership, Stewardship, Member Directories and Ministerial Search Committee. She has been a Board member and Board President, has served on the Committee on Ministry and has been a long standing member of the Vocal Ensemble.

A sampling of her community involvement includes 26 years and many positions within the League of Women Voters, NMC and Library committees, the Chamber of Commerce, and Planned Parenthood. And then there is her care for the environment, family farming and wildlife.

Each week, all season long, you will find this recipient working at Meadowlark Farm with their CSA. Salad anyone?

Once there was an abandoned egg – a mallard egg no less. Not only did she see to it that the egg hatched and grew, but that little mallard bonded with her until it would sit on her lap. I'm betting it was a sad day when that mallard decided it was time to be a duck and not a pet.

In closing, I will add that twenty years ago the gold pin of the Gamble Award was awarded to this person. Since that time her compassion for volunteerism has only expanded and grown.

It is my honor to present a platinum Gamble Award key to Jane Watts.

Lifespan Experience

Greetings Friends,

It is blue-butterfly day here in spring,
 And with these sky-flakes down in flurry on flurry
 There is more unmixed color on the wing
 Than flowers will show for days unless they hurry.

But these are flowers that fly and all but sing:
 And now from having ridden out desire
 They lie closed over in the wind and cling
 Where wheels have freshly sliced the April mire.

Robert Frost, "Blue-Butterfly Day"

Sundays in April

As a congregation we will be considering the themes of rebirth and renewal as part of the Sunday Services. Birth and the beginning of new things can be a mysterious and wondrous time – as all of the cycles of life are. This month we're going to explore the beginnings of the cosmos and the beginnings of the earth as told by our good friend The Universe! Through the book duo, "Born with a Bang – The Universe Tells our Cosmic Story" and "From Lava to Life – The Universe Tells Our Earth Story", we will consider the wonders of our blue boat home and of the universe. As Unitarian Universalists, we believe in using science to tell us about how we are related to other living things in our interdependent web of life.

Don't forget to join us before service on April 30th for our Annual May Day Ceremony – all are welcome as we remove last year's ribbons and dance the May Pole for this year (lamppost by the rear entrance to the building). Children interested in participating should join us at 9:45am. This event is weather permitting – if it is raining we will postpone until May 7th.

Suggested readings for families/parents this month include:

"The Everything Seed" – by Carole Martignacco

Child/Youth of the Month

Our Child of the Month is Aidan Schleuder! Make sure you take a moment to greet Aidan when you see him, and check out the poster featuring him in the social hall all of this month! Each month we will give special attention to a child or youth from our UUCGT community! A picture of them will be featured in the social hall, along with a little bit about them. Interested in more information and how to participate? Contact the office!

Green Sanctuary

Please save the date!
Friday, April 21, 7:00 - 9:00 pm
at UUGT for fun and fund raising!

A helpful and fun event is coming! On April 21st, Green Sanctuary (our UUCGT committee that promotes consciousness of the interconnected web of all life) is partnering with Citizen's Climate Lobby to hold a concert and silent auction to raise funds to send high school students to Washington, DC to lobby for climate change.

The concert, here at UUCGT, will feature the Minor 6, a group of student musicians, our own Amelia Burke and Aili Simpson on violin, and David Chown on piano. The concert is donation-based and the silent auction will be wild and exciting! This is a good reason to do your spring cleaning, looking for treasures for our auction!

Please contact Mary Van Valin at 231-342-1605 or Ann McPhail at 703-403-4389, if you have items or ideas for the auction. Doors open on the 21st at 6:30, the concert begins at 7pm, with breaks for bidding on auction items!

SEA (Students for Environmental Advocacy) Club is a Traverse City Central High School organization founded in 2016 by students committed to making a difference for the natural environment both locally and nationally. The club is actively working on several projects to make Central HS more sustainable, including pursuing advanced Green School certification and working with school officials to install solar panels on the roof of the high school. Right now they are working to fund the CCL Conference Scholarship Fund.

Citizens' Climate Lobby (CCL) is a non-profit, non-partisan, grassroots advocacy organization that pursues respectful dialog to build momentum for the adoption of fair, effective, and sustainable national climate change solutions. The local chapter was founded by our own Maura Brennan right in our Social Hall! In June, 2017 CCL will hold its annual conference and lobbying day in Washington D.C. This offers students and adults the opportunity to directly participate in our democracy!

If you'd rather just make a donation, it is tax deductible, and we are delighted to receive it!

Membership News

SPOTLIGHT ON NEW MEMBERS

Kim Sibilsky shared her enthusiasm as a new member on February 26, 2017. Best Wishes to Kim as she recuperates, exercises and heals from recent knee surgery! Kim is a retired CEO of a statewide association focused on health care. Interestingly, Kim and her husband, Robert Gronevelt, lived on their boat this past summer while building their house in Elk Rapids. In the summer, Kim enjoys sailing, walking, golf and gardening. Winter finds Kim cooking, reading and walking. Her current favorite book is The Boys in the Boat about nine Americans and their quest for Gold at the 1936 Berlin Olympics by Daniel James Brown. Kim's past UU affiliation was in East Lansing, MI and at Fountain Street in Grand Rapids. Kim, who was looking for a church home, likes UUCGT and the people here. Her hopes during her membership are for building community and social justice work. She is already a monitor on health care and is shadowing Judy Myers on the Finance Committee. Kim's birthday is May 3. Welcome Kim and way to Jump Right In!

We welcomed John LaBrie to membership on February 26, 2017. John works in Traverse City as a Registered Nurse. He enjoys running, walking, reading and movies. John recently enjoyed The Passage Trilogy, an epic and gripping tale of catastrophe and survival, by Justin Cronin. He also recently enjoyed the film "Moonlight."

In April 2016, he was able to travel to Anaheim, CA to attend the Association of periOperative Registered Nurses conference. John was raised in a Roman Catholic tradition and now he looks forward to re-starting his spiritual journey in the all-inclusive atmosphere of UUCGT. John is interested in Community Needs, Safe Harbor, Meditation and Greeters. John celebrates his birthday on March 31. We just missed saying HAPPY BIRTHDAY John and Welcome to UUCGT!

Laura Ciccone jokingly thanked "the Academy" for welcoming herself and her sons Elio, age 9 and Gaetano "Guy", age 7 1/2 into UUCGT - as February 26 was Oscar Night!

Laura works in retail, and in leisure time enjoys going to beaches, bike riding, travel and Bikram yoga. Laura was fortunate to attend the Women's March in DC January 21 with her big sister from Arizona! Way to Go! Laura's motivation to join and become involved at UUCGT was a need for diversity and like minds, and her boys. Laura's birthday is September 20. Thank you Laura for finding our community!

We are very happy to have Kim, John and Laura with us and wish them a very Warm Welcome!

More New Members will be featured next month.

Social Justice and Action

Many people see health care as a right due to all peoples. California is working on legislature that will give all citizens, documented and undocumented, single payer health care, the best kind of health insurance. Is that a right of all peoples?

Along with health care, many also see clean water as a right, as well as clean air to breathe. And many feel the right to good education and potentially rewarding jobs, housing, etc. should be expected. We in America, have been spoiled by a society that generally has taken care of its citizens. It has been a part of our heritage since near our beginning. Since our conception, we did not include all our citizens. Some that were excluded were Native Americans and some were slaves, African Americans, and many were or had been incarcerated. We have since tried to correct some of that, but only to a partial degree. We are often referred to as a welfare state. Some countries are more welfare oriented than ours and some are less.

In today's atmosphere, the government is trying to roll back what many perceive as our given rights. Our air and land quality is being threatened, as well as more individual rights such as education, health care, jobs that give a living wage, and more.

Another right being beaten back is the right to fair representation. It is done through one person, one vote. This is a fundamental concept of our society, our democracy. It has been eroded by the Supreme Court negating the Voters' Right Act, by dark money being poured into our elections, maybe even by other countries influencing our elections, and by districting, gerrymandering the voters so as to negate their vote.

Many voters have seen the return of restrictive laws that make it more difficult for them to vote. Shouldn't a democracy make it easier for all to vote? All voices have a right to be heard. That is also our responsibility in a democracy - to cast our vote. But laws are being enacted that make unfair demands on some voters, make registration more difficult rather than easier, lessening voting hours and days and closing polls in certain areas, making voting an obstacle course. These obstacles particularly exclude certain types of voters and in so doing assure that other ideologues are elected. That process goes against one person, one vote and against the ideals of democracy.

In a democracy, it becomes our duty to defend our government. When our own government seems to get things wrong, we the people must stand up. It is in our constitution.

Let me quote: "We the people of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility...promote the general Welfare, and secure the blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity..." When we are not doing this in our country, we must stand up and ensure that justice is really for all within our country!

Please contact all your members of congress, national and state, and let them know how you feel. Even contact members of congress from other States. They, too, need to know how you feel. Remind them that you are watching and that you do cast your votes. It is our duty!

Social Justice workshop

At the Social Justice Workshop in March we identified two issues, Inclusion and Redistricting, that the committee, and hopefully the UUCGT as a whole, would like to devote our time, energy and talents to addressing.

Inclusion

Saturday, April 29, 9:30 - 11:30 am

As inclusion is a very broad topic, we plan to meet again in the UUCGT Sanctuary on Saturday, April 29, for a workshop similar to the one held in March to distill what areas of inclusion we wish to dedicate our energies to fulfilling. Snacks are provided and a small donation is welcome. Please inform Paula Jo Kemler pjkemler@me.com if you plan to attend.

Redistricting

Sunday, April 30, 11:45 am - 1:00 pm, UUCGT classroom.
We will have a general meeting on UUCGT Social Justice and a discussion of The Third Reconstruction by Rev. William Barber detailing the history and contemporary realities of the marginalization of voters and the lessons we can learn about power entrenching itself. Please read the book before the meeting if you are able. If you need a copy or have one to share, please let me know.

The Activist Hub

If you are not yet conversant on The Activist Hub, please contact Lynnette Rhodes, lynnetterhodes@gmail.com for training. This is an excellent vehicle for us to share information about local activities and other information focused on Redistricting and Inclusion, as well as other Social Justice topics.
