Hymn #136: Where Gentle Tides Go Rolling By

Verse One

Where gentle tides go rolling by along the salt sea strand, the colors blend and roll as one together in the sand.
And often do the winds entwine to send their distant call.
The quiet joys of humankind when love embraces all.

Verse Two

Where road and wheat together rise among the common ground, the mare and stallion, light and dark, have thunder in their sound.
The rainbow sigh, the blended flood still have my heart enthralled, the quiet joys of what we share when love embraces all.

Repeat Verse One

Hymn #205 Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a soul like me!
I once was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed.

Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years; bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.
