WWW.OICSFL.ORG

OIC of South Florida is championing the elevation of South Florida's Middle Class by bringing together thought, community, education, business and government leaders. The focus is to harness the research, initiatives and strategies occurring across communities, the state and even nationally all seeking to strengthen America's weakening middle class.

This summit connects the dots of compelling research conducted nationally and locally which includes: The United Way ALICE Report, The Prosperity Study conducted by Florida International University and champions the work of Six Pillars Broward County and One Community One Goal Miami-Dade County.

Who Should Attend?:

Educators, Workforce and Economic Development Practitioners, Emerging Leaders, Employers, Faith Based and Community Members, Youth, College Students, Businesses, Nonprofits, Human and Community Development Stakeholders.

Why Should You Attend?:

Deriving solutions that address the challenges facing the middle class is critical because (1) we need a vibrant middle class that produces high-skilled workers who can generate a higher per capita gross development product, (2) the middle class contributes tax dollars that allow for services beyond the mere "basics", (3) a strong middle class ensures maximum opportunity for social and financial mobility.
